

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Daniels and family

Funeral home sold

Angus Mackenzie, a well-known person in Madoc, and owner of the Mackenzie Funeral Home for the past 20 years, has sold the business to Jim Daniels of Picton. Mr. Daniels was born in Stouffville, Ont., in 1947. After graduating from S.D.H.S. in 1966, he started his apprenticeship with the Ward Funeral Home in Weston and graduated in 1968. He continued with the Ward Funeral Home staff as a funeral director until 1973 when he moved to Picton and worked for the Hicks Funeral Home.

Jim's wife, Sharon, was born in Stouffville in 1948. After graduating from S.D.H.S. in 1966 she went to Toronto Teachers College and graduated in 1967. She taught at Orchard Park Public School, Stouffville, for a year and when she married Jim in 1967, was transferred to the York Borough of Education and taught in Weston for two years.

Jim and Sharon have two children, Christopher, 5½ years old, and Jane, two months old.

Announce grant

Clarke T. Rollins, MPP Hastings, has announced that he has been advised by the Hon. Leo Bernier, Minister of Natural Resources, that approval of a provincial grant in the amount of $5,000 has been given to the Moira River Conservation Authority to carry out a development program in the Vanderwater Conservation Area.

The colonel Roscoe Vanderwater Conservation Area comprises some 415 miles north-east of Belleville, Township of Hungerford.

The capital improvements which the authority proposes to carry out includes enlargement of the camping area, construction of additional service roads and parking areas, expansion of the picnic area and provision of additional picnic and sanitary facilities, extension of water services, fencing and other general development work.

All member municipalities are designed as benefiting and will bear the authority's share of the cost.

Rd designated

Clarke T. Rollins, MPP Hastings, has announced he has been advised by the Hon. John R. Rhodes, Minister of Transportation and Communications, that he has designated part of the 5th Concession Road in the Township of Huntingdon from King's Highway 62, easterly 3.8 miles - then southerly 0.6 miles on the road allowance between Lots 12 and 13, as a Development Road for construction

Announce $1,750 grant for O'Hara Mill Area

Clarke T. Rollins, MPP Hastings, has announced he has been advised by the Hon. Leo Bernier, Minister of Natural Resources, that approval for a provincial grant in the amount of $1,750 has been given to the Moira River Conservation Authority to carry out a capital development program in the O'Hara Mill Conservation Area.

The authority proposes to extend the present parking facilities, development of a nature trail through the area, including the recently acquired 50 acres bushland, provision of additional picnic and sanitary facilities and other general work.

All member municipalities are designated as benefiting and will bear the authority's share of the cost.

People of all ages welcome at Art Trek

People of all ages across the province will be able to participate in a travelling art workshop again this summer.

"Art Trek" is a group of travelling artists encouraging people to discover a creative potential in themselves that they may not have been aware of; encouraging working artists to discover a new medium of technique, encouraging everyone to see art as part of everyday life.

The artists travel in teams of two in six different areas of the province under the joint sponsorship of the Ministry of Community and Social Services and Visual Arts Ontario as part of Experience 74 program. They travel in vans full of equipment and art supplies offering unstructured workshops free of charge in painting, printing, silkscreening, sculpture, batik, macrame and other media.

David Campbell and Lynn Stevens will be visiting Madoc as part of the tour, and will be in the Madoc Public School Gym July 12, 13 and 14, at times yet to be announced.

There is no charge and no age limit. "Everyone is welcome," say Lynn and Dave.

Special meeting

A special meeting of the Madoc Village Council was held in the Council Chambers recently to consider the proposed restricted area (zoning) bylaw of the village.

All members of council were present to hear Mrs. Mary Moroz, planner from Totten, Sims and Hubicki Associates Limited, Consultants, explain various details and answer questions concerning the zone map and the permitted uses of property in the future.

Two men injured

A single car accident four miles north of Madoc on the Cooper Road has resulted in Donald Barnett, 20, of Tweed, being admitted to Belleville General Hospital suffering from multiple abrasions.

A passenger in the car, Gary Rivers, 21, of RR 2, Madoc, was also treated but was later released.

The car, a 1972 Duster, had been south bound when Mr. Barnett apparently lost control on a corner, causing the vehicle to roll over.

Police report that the car was totally destroyed in the accident.

Rev. J. H. Thompson of the Madoc area Anglican Churches of Canada led a delegation of Madoc people to see the Anglican Primate of All Canada at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Marmora, Sunday. Archbishop Scott preached at a 5 p.m. Holy Communion service, greeted people as they left the church, and then spoke informally at a smorgasbord dinner in the church's parish hall. (Madoc Review Photo)

HE LOVES SPORTS

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

Ross is a good-looking boy, and his disposition and manners are as pleasant as his appearance.

Just turned 12, Ross has dark hair, expressive brown eyes and rosy cheeks. He is sturdily built and healthy.

Ross is warm-hearted, affectionate and outgoing, liking people and animals. He is the kind of boy adults appreciate because he enjoys grown-up company and is co-operative and polite.

At present, Ross attends a school for exceptional children (in his case exceptional meaning below average). He is in a special grade in the senior section. He has the intelligence to go to a vocational school when he reaches the secondary level.

Ross is active and keen on sports. Soccer is his favorite, but he plays most games. Fond of music, he likes to sing at school functions. He joins whole-heartedly in youth activities at church. Though Ross does not read much himself, he enjoys someone reading to him, especially at bedtime.

Ross needs a mother and father who will value his affectionate nature and who will give him warmth, love and encouragement. He will do his best as the only child or as the youngest in his adoption home because he tends to compete with other children.

To inquire about adopting Ross, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

Nurse practitioners are aiding the family doctor

Next time you visit your doctor's office, you may find that you're getting all the medical help and advice you came for - without actually seeing the physician.

If that's the case, don't worry. The family doctor hasn't fled, leaving your health for the chilly attention of a computer; he's probably using the professional services of a trained nurse practitioner.

The idea of the nurse practitioner - or family practice nurse, as she's sometimes called - isn't new: in isolated northern parts of Canada nurses have for years fulfilled many of the functions of a doctor - including putting in stitches, prescribing antibiotics and setting fractures.

Such nurses work in an even more independent role than that of the physician's associate (or assistant) in the United States. Like the associate, who has been part of the U.S. medical scene for some years, the northern nurse practitioner also performs history taking, and testing and diagnostic procedures; but the difference is that the northern nurse doesn't have a doctor just down the corridor. She has to use more initiative and resourcefulness.

So it was only a matter of time before 'the nurse with something extra' - the nurse practitioner - began to play a part in the overall medical scene.

The reasons for this are quite straight forward: new developments in medical knowledge and techniques are opening up new areas for the doctor's attention.

To master them and apply them for the patient's benefit, he must share many of the tasks he used to perform.

And this doesn't mean simply handing over the jobs the physician doesn't want to do. Increasingly, medical care is being provided by a team in which each health care professional does what he or she is especially trained to do best.

So the nurse practitioner is in no sense a second class doctor; rather, she is a nurse with additional skills and education that enable her to fill an expanded role in her own profession - enabling the doctor to do the same in his.

Ontario believes that residents 65 or over, the blind and the disabled should have an income of at least $2600 a year.

In July, Ontario will introduce a Special Benefits program. It will place extra funds on top of federal Guaranteed Income Supplements—enough to guarantee the elderly who are qualified residents of Ontario an income of $2600 a year. Blind and disabled people who qualify for Family Benefits will also be entitled to these special benefits.

Beginning September 1, approved drugs prescribed by a doctor or dentist will be available, free of charge, to those qualifying for the special benefits outlined above, Family Benefits or the federal Guaranteed Income Supplement. Drug cards will be mailed automatically. You don't have to apply for them.

Who will receive these special benefits?

If you are 65 or over (with an annual income of less than $2600)...and you now receive both Old Age Security and the Guaranteed Income Supplement... you will receive your benefits cheque each month, automatically. You do not have to apply for it.

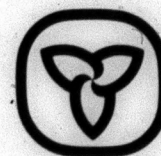

If you are 65 or over (with an annual income of less than $2600)...and you do not receive any federal income supplement... please give us a call.

If you are blind or disabled... and you now receive assistance under Ontario's Family Benefit Program... you will receive your benefits cheque each month, automatically. You do not have to apply for it.

If you are blind or disabled... and you do not receive Provincial assistance... please give us a call. Our telephone number is shown below.

Any questions? Call us, free of charge. Dial "O" and ask the operator for Zenith 8-2000. Residents within the Metro Toronto local calling area should dial 965-8470.

Marie Kurchak tells PM about Hastings

The riding of Hastings has not received as much federal attention as it deserves, said Marie Kurchak, Liberal candidate for Hastings.

Mrs. Kurchak made the remark during a discussion in Ottawa with Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau.

She also stressed the need for information systems which allowed constituents to respond to new policy that affected them. She said people must be made more aware by their members of parliament about the various incentive programs provided by the government.

She was especially concerned about members who represented the opposition, since they had a vested interest in making the party in power look inefficient, and therefore were naturally reluctant to pass on helpful information.

Dies in Orillia

A native of the Moira area, Huntingdon Township, Mrs. Hilda Mae Foster passed away at Soldiers Memorial Hospital, Orillia, on Monday, June 24, 1974. She was in her 64th year and had been in ill health for the past month.

A daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adam Dean, she had lived in Beaverton for the past 10 years, and previous to that in the Toronto area. She was an adherent of the Standard Church.

Mrs. Foster is survived by two brothers, Henry Dean of Castleton, Ernest Dean of Roslin and two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Dean of Belleville and Mrs. J. (Mary) Wilson of Tweed. She was predeceased by her husband, the late Edgar Foster, three brothers and one sister.

Funeral service was conducted Wednesday, June 26, with service in the MacKenzie Funeral Home, Madoc. Rev. E. R. Hawkes officiated.

Interment followed in White Lake Cemetery.

Pallbearers, all nephews, were Frank Dean, David Dean, Sam Dean, Tony Allore, Keith Boldrick and Arnold Dean.

The Prime Minister and Mrs. Kurchak also discussed the problem of apathy in young voters.

A very enjoyable time was had at the farm of Keith McCann of Eldorado.

Weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ab Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Brian Kelly and family, all of Brantford, Mr. and Mrs. John Quinlin and family of Oshawa, Mrs. Daisy Foster, Minnie Jones and Judy of Willowdale.

Saturday evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Turpin, Linda and Wendy of Stirling. Sunday guests were Mrs. Mable Morrisson of Marmora, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carman of Belleville, Gord Jones of Willowdale, Doug Turpin of Stirling, Edgar Stroms of Bowmanville, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Area NDP candidate man with purpose

Bob Sanders, the New Democratic Party's candidate in the upcoming election, is a man with a purpose and a deep concern for the people of Hastings County.

Mr. Sanders is 52 years old, married and has one daughter.

He is a respected rehabilitation worker at the Belleville General Hospital.

Originally from Holland, Mr. Sanders is fluent in English, German and Dutch. While in Holland he spent four years in building construction and endured three years in a concentration camp during the last war.

While in Canada Bob has held management positions with a number of companies. He spent six years in poultry production and produce in mid-western Ontario.

In 1966 Bob enrolled in the sociology and psychology program at the University of Waterloo. He obtained his degree and in 1969 came to Belleville as a medical social worker.

Mr. Sanders is a dedicated family man whose varied and rich experiences have given him a strong drive to help his fellow man. At present he works with the elderly families, alcoholics, and drug addicts and rehabilitation and welfare in all its forms.

He communicates effectively with all ages and types of people. Bob has always strived to improve himself and the lot of others around him. When he finds the time, he enjoys fishing, reading, raising pure-bred dogs and family activities. Bob knows the needs of the people in Hastings and makes every effort to help them to be realized.

Old time lawn social

That old time popular event, the lawn social, was revived last Friday evening as part of St. Andrew's United Church Centennial celebrations.

Over 200 people attended, some of them in pretty centennial costumes.

Another authentic touch was added by the attendance of the Centre Hastings Secondary School Band. Under the direction of conductor William Aylsworth, the band provided many selections for good listening by the crowd in the listening area.

Name Pierre Berton as "Man of year"

Pierre Berton, one of Canada's outstanding writers and well-known T.V. personality, is the winner of this year's "Man of the Year" Peace award, granted annually by the Lester B. Pearson Peace Park to the Canadian citizen who in the previous years has made the most outstanding contribution to Canadian unity and/or world peace. The award will be presented to Mr. Berton at the 8th Annual Peace Park Festival, Highway 7, near Tweed and Madoc, Ontario, on Saturday, July 12, at 2 p.m.

The award given to Mr. Berton was for his outstanding contribution through his writings as a unifying force in Canadian unity. By his creative ability, Canadians have a better understanding of their country and can take pride in the accomplishments of Canada as a nation.

In addition to the man of the year award, "Friends of the Peace Park" awards are given to local citizens who, over the years, have assisted the park since it was dedicated on July 1, 1967, as Canada's only Centennial Peace Park.

This year's winners are: Les Rawlings, manager, Band of Montreal; Jack Nolan, farmer; Mrs. Alice Reavie, homemaker; and Irene Jones, world traveller and lecturer.

Exhibitors for the Art, Crafts and Hobby Show are still coming in. The following have been added, Mrs. M. Llewellyn, gems and crafts, Toronto; Linda and Don Elliott, rocks and crafts, Sudbury; Mrs. Ursula Redlick, art; Arden and Gary Barr, art, Stirling; Iain Morton and Dale Martin, jewellery, Tweed.

That garage door...

Occasionally, something interesting or unusual comes along to brighten the daily routine, just when it seems to be getting dreary. A couple of these happened to me recently.

First, the good Samaritans. The story really began one night last winter.

I have an ancient and venerable wooden garage, which bears on both sides of the entrance the honorable scars left by my wife and daughter as they tried at various times to get the car into the garage or out of it.

My wife is the only person of my acquaintance who can try to back a car out of a garage and get it wedged kitty-corner across the building. On several occasions I have almost had to have the garage demolished to get the car out.

Anyway, on this night last winter my wife and a friend were trying to close the garage door.

It is a massive thing, about six inches thick, of hardwood. It would cost about a thousand dollars to build today. The chap who installed it was quite ingenious.

He installed a couple of rails, some pulleys, and two huge weights at the end of some heavy wire. While the door could not be raised and slid back with a couple of fingers, like those in a modern garage, a strong man, with a good heave, could get it up and sliding back along the rails.

I am not a particularly strong man. In fact, I am a weak one, in more ways than one, as my wife could tell you.

As a result, I usually left the garage door open. I couldn't see the point in all that heaving and hauling. This annoyed my wife. In the fall, leaves blew into the garage. In the winter, snow blew in. Neither bothered me, but you know what women are like.

Well, on the night in question, the two ladies decided to close the garage door, because the snow was blowing in. They gave a great heave, the wire came off the pulleys, and the door came off the rails.

Fortunately, the car was not in the garage, or I'd have been looking for a new car. The door weighs about six hundred pounds.

It did not come crashing right down, but hung, suspended by the wire, at a forty-five degree angle in the garage. You couldn't have driven a kiddy car in there.

I was going to organize a work party and get it back on the rails, but it was stormy, and then I got the flu and time went on and things cropped up, as they seem to.

A couple of times, I went out and looked at the stupid thing, and once tried to get it back on the rails, which almost gave me a double hernia.

Well, time went on and my wife nattered away about getting that door fixed and the neighbours dropped a few hints but I became sort of fond of that crazy thing hanging there, as one might get fond of a cross-eyed cat.

One fine evening recently, I was sitting in the back yard, enjoying my pre-prandial aperitif, when an old truck pulled up and a sweaty, dirty young man came through the gate.

Under the grime I identified Jamie Hunter, whom I taught last year. Grinning, he announced, "Mr. Smiley, I'm going to do something for Canadian literature." I was baffled. He went on, "When are you going to get your garage door fixed?"

"Oh, that. Any day now Jamie, as soon as I can find someone to do it. Why?"

"Well, every time Mike and I drive by and see that door, it bothers us. We're going to fix it for you."

"Great!", enthusiastically. "How much?", cautiously.

"It's not going to cost you a nickel." I insisted I would pay the going rate. He refused. They were doing it for Canadian literature. Jamie said they were pretty busy, and asked when I wanted it done. I said whenever they could get at it. I thought he meant in a couple of three weeks.

I went in to dinner, delighted at this display of gratitude or whatever. After dinner, I heard a bit of a din out back, and there they were, four young men, getting that ridiculous door back on the tracks.

I was almost overcome with something or other. All four were former students of mine: Mike Laurin, Mike Dragoman, John Sachs and Jamie Hunter. At least two of them had been working since eight o'clock that morning, and here they were, twelve hours later, slugging away at a brutal, awkward job for their old English teacher. I was touched. They absolutely refused any payment.

I was just as astonished as I was moved. Here were four young guys who, instead of moaning around about no employment, or living on welfare, had formed a loose partnership, and were doing construction, painting, anything they could get.

They were immediately offered the job of taking off my storm windows and painting my house. And that's how you get ahead in the world, which does NOT owe you a living, young man.

In addition to this lucky strike, I have Dan St. Amand, another student, and the best cornet player in the whole area, cutting my lawn, so all in all, it looks like a good summer.

Parliament Hill

Stanfield will head minority government

By PETER WARD

The time is fast approaching when the hooting and hollering of the politicians on the campaign trail subsides and the voters make a decision. It's a period in the campaign which pundits dread when the contest has been as close as this one because it is the time for predictions.

We all know that it's dangerous to indulge in forecasting, and yet there are a few who can resist. This election is particularly dangerous because there are so many voters who still have not made up their minds. The one common feedback received from politicians of all stripes is the fact that interest in this election is remarkably low across the nation.

Lack of interest may not be the right description. When people answer a pollster that they are undecided, it can express a lack of interest, and it can also express the real indecision in the mind of a voter who is interested, but at a loss to choose a leader, because all leaders have failed to instill confidence.

PERSONALLY, I feel this is the case at election time, 1974. On balance, I would say that the Liberals ran a better campaign than the Stanfield troops. That being the case, it follows that there are a great number of Canadians who don't want to put their trust again in Pierre Elliott Trudeau, but who are equally reluctant to let Stanfield handle the show. I'd exclude Quebec from that hypothesis, because it does appear that Trudeau and the Liberals will take all but about 15 seats in the province.

Key province in the election is Ontario, and there the pollsters show the highest number of undecided voters. It's a province which was touted two months ago as a potential electoral bonanza for the Conservatives, and personally, I feel they've failed in their bid to lock up available solid support. Canadians generally tend to vote against parties and leaders, rather than voting in favor of things they like. The Liberals have done a masterful job of giving the public something to vote against - against the price and income proposals of Stanfield.

The fact that the tactic has only been partially successful is demonstrated by the huge undecided segment of the public.

TWO OTHER factors which can be taken as fairly certain are a diminution of support for both the New Democratic Party and the Social Credit Party.

David Lewis' support, if it leaves the party, is more likely to go to the Tories than to the Liberals because Lewis has been so closely identified with the last Trudeau government.

Real Caouette's rumored uncertain health, whether a fact or not, is likely to bleed his support to the Liberals in Quebec.

AT THIS WRITING it appears to me that the Stanfield Conservatives will win 123 seats in the new Parliament to form a minority government.

The Liberals I'd place at about 108 seats, with 59 or 60 of those in Quebec.

The New Democrats will win about 24 and the Social Credit Party nine.

Remember, that's nothing but a semi-educated guess from one of those guys who can't resist the dangerous game of election-forecasting.

Trap Club busy

The Trap Club has been turning out some very good scores so far this year.

Some of the June 30 scores were Tom Burnside Jr. breaking 50 straight with an over all score of 98 out of 100 for the day, a championship score.

Congratulations also go to Harry Dennis with a score of 24 out of 25, Joe Quinn for his 23, and M. Quinn for 22.

Anyone interested is still invited to come to the club and shoot a round.

TODAY'S HEALTH

You can guard against vacation health hazards

by David Woods

Vacation. A time to relax, forget your cares, recharge the batteries — and all that.

But no matter how good the season of tans and tents, barbecues and bicycles may be for your health and well-being, it also brings its own health hazards.

One of these, of course, is travelling itself. Have your car thoroughly checked before setting off; wear seatbelts; try to keep children occupied; share the driving, if possible; let passengers change seats occasionally; stop at regular intervals to stretch your legs; don't drive when you're tired.

Always carry your OHIP card with you when you travel, and note the location of medical services wherever you stay. If you're vacationing out of the country, make sure you've fulfilled all vaccination requirements for the place you're going to. If you're driving — at home or abroad — carry a basic first aid kit.

If you're boating, always wear a lifejacket — and listen to the weather forecast before you set sail; if you're swimming, always do it in company.

Make sure the mushrooms you pick really are mushrooms — and try to recognize potentially dangerous plants and berries.

Perhaps the most common of these is poison ivy, a low-growing plant with three leaflets on each stalk and often with greenish-white berries. The skin area that has been in contact with poison ivy should be washed with strong household soap, and treated with calamine lotion.

Bees, wasps, hornets, mosquitoes and blackflies may also decide to spend time with you on vacation — and there's not too much you can do about these uninvited guests.

As a preventive measure, stay away from insects' nests, and warn children not to aggravate bees, wasps and hornets in particular. Insect stings can produce serious effects, particularly with persons sensitive to their venom.

Most animals, some insects, and certain reptiles will attack if they feel threatened. This is true of the only poisonous snake in Ontario — the small massasauga rattler, which inhabits a 20-mile area along the shorelines of Georgian Bay, Lake Huron, and possibly Lake Erie. If you are in the area, be aware of the location of the nearest antivenin depot.

Since rabies continues to exist in the wildlife of Ontario, don't approach; observe from a distance.

Foxes, skunks, bats and raccoons are affected with rabies more frequently than other animals, but any animal exhibiting peculiar behavior should be given wide berth.

Pet dogs and cats taken on vacation should be vaccinated against rabies at least 30 days before the vacation period.

In the event of attack by a suspected rabid animal, see a physician immediately. By law, all rabies cases or suspected cases must be reported to the local Medical Officer of Health.

Hazards from fish hooks and other possibly tetanus-inducing objects, such as nails or strong thorns, are of course greater in the vacation season.

And finally, there's the sun itself. Don't try to get that tan all on the first day — do it gradually.

Impossible dreams come true Helen Allen's column

Four year-old Mark was born with neither arms nor legs. Doctors could offer no explanation for the overwhelming deformity and handicap.

The distraught parents decided they could not provide adequate care and attention in the family setting. They felt perhaps an institution offered the best possible future in the circumstances.

But Helen Allen drew him to the attention of readers of her newspaper column Today's Child, and more than 50 couples offered to adopt him.

Today Mark, now 6 and attending kindergarden, is happily settled in his new home with his adoptive parents and two older brothers and a sister.

"The most satisfying experience of my life and the highlight of my career in adoptive work," says Miss Allen of the adoption of Mark.

Helen Allen is not given to extravagant speech, but she adds: "The past 10 years have been the most satisfying and exciting decade of my life."

She's referring to the time that she has presided over the column Today's Child which has been responsible for the adoption of thousands of children.

Mark's case, though remarkable, is only one of a series of miracles in placing children.

Seven Ojibwa children from a broken family in the Brantford area will look back with gratitude on Helen.

They were featured with the hope that they could be adopted as a unit. The usually optimistic columnist confessed: "This is an impossible dream." Impossible or not it happened.

Stan and Gwena Morrill, of Brantford, read of the seven children (three of them adopted). They submitted the adoption proposal of their "Family hour," pointing out that the adoption of seven children would mean major re-adjustments and the cancellation of the planned holiday to Arizona.

The unanimous vote was to proceed. Stan Morrill, who is Ontario director of Christian Education for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon Church), simply states: "We can't reject a child in need."

The column originated in response to a suggestion of Dr. James S. Band, then deputy minister of social and family services in Ontario.

Andrew MacFarlane, then managing editor of the Toronto Telegram, agreed to a three-week trial run of a column which would acquaint the public with hard-to-place children available for adoption.

"We assigned Helen to the job because she was probably the best reporter in the place," recalls MacFarlane.

The Children's Aid Societies in Ontario were not enthusiastic with the announced project.

Only three of the 55 societies in the province would have anything to do with it. Miss Allen managed to line up pictures of 23 children who were to be featured over the trial period.

Eighteen of the 23 were soon adopted.

The first column appeared on June 6, 1964. Helen Allen fondly recalls that first child.

"She was part Negro, a beautiful child, 15 months old, and perhaps her name — Hope — was prophetic. We got 40 letters for her within a week."

Hope quickly found a home.

When the three weeks trial period ended, there could be no turning back. Today's Child was to be a permanent newspaper feature.

Will only the rich be able to afford milk?

Milk may someday be a luxury only the rich can afford.

At least, that is what some people are saying. If the price continues to increase, I'm beginning to place some credulity on what these pundits of doom are saying.

Around our place, milk disappears at an astonishing rate. I drink a couple of quarts daily and our seven-year-old daughter, although she seems to exist to a great degree on soft drinks, is also extremely fond of the white stuff. She is like so many young people these days. I guess: Their idea of a balanced diet is a chocolate bar in each hand.

In any event, the milk bags come into the house nine quarts at a time. By the end of the week, more is needed.

However, at the rate milk producers are going out of business, there will definitely be a shortage of butter in Canada this year and heaven-only-knows how many pounds will have to be imported.

Or didn't many of you know that butter is made of milk? Not long ago, Agriculture Minister Eugene Whelan gave a political speech and said that many people do not even realize that milk comes from cows. So it wouldn't surprise me if many more do not realize that butter comes from milk.

It would appear that many milk producers, even with recent increases, are in trouble. Delmer Bennett, an executive member of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, said recently that most industrial milk producers — farmers who produce milk used in cheese, butter, puddings, ice cream, powdered milk — are still selling milk at a loss.

At the moment, producers are grossing $8.50 a hundred-weight. Mr. Bennett maintains that the federation figures it cost $10.85 to produce that much milk in 1973 — and costs have been climbing ever since the beginning of this year.

The wet spring put planting three weeks behind. In some places, dairy farmers did not even plant feed grain because of the lateness. Many of those who did get their grain crops planted can expect lower yields.

This, in turn, means that many farmers who usually grow their own feed will have to buy grain throughout this coming winter. They can't afford to do this, says Mr. Bennett, at the present price they are getting for their milk.

The OFA and Mr. Bennett, along with a number of other people directly connected with milk production, are saying that a great many more dairymen will simply get out of the business if a better return on their labor and investment does not come to them. Mr. Whelan has announced a new federal farm policy which contains a 10-year dairy program. As this is written, the details of the plan have not been made public. It's to be hoped the plan will contain some system whereby returns can be linked to production costs in some manner.

Dairymen have been leaving the business in astonishing numbers in recent years. Although the number of producers has dropped considerably, it appears that the number of milk cows in production is now remaining fairly stable. (No pun intended).

And this is a good sign. It actually means that the smaller herds are being dispersed and the bigger herds are getting bigger. I'm not sure this is a good idea. It seems to me that it points to the disappearance of the family farm and I've never liked that thought.

But all signs point to the inescapable fact that dairy herds must be big to make a dairy operation viable. It would seem that the day of milking a dozen or two cows is past. Herds must be larger and the cows in production must be good ones before a dairy herd can give the owner a decent salary.

Don't forget. Dairymen should get high compensation because they don't get a vacation. That wonderful milk-making machine, the milk cow, doesn't take any holidays. Nor does she hold back production on Sundays or during summer vacations.

The prophets of doom are saying that the return needed to keep dairymen in production — that is, give them a decent wage — is simply not high enough. Which means more and more farmers will get out of the dairy business. Which means much less milk. Which means much higher prices. Therefore, milk will become a luxury instead of a staple part of the Canadian diet.

Man, I hope I never live to see that day come.

A LIFETIME OF FAMILY PLEASURE TO ENJOY

In days of yore....

From the files of the Madoc Review

50 YEARS AGO July 16, 1924

Russell Scott, former Toronto promoter and originally from Madoc, who turned bandit, escaped with his life today when Circuit Judge Lindsay allowed him to withdraw his pleas of guilty and enter one of not guilty to the charge of murdering Joseph Maurer, a drug clerk, in a hold-up. After Scott had pleaded guilty on the advice of his attorney, Judge Lindsay indicated that he felt impelled to impose the death penalty. A remarkable court scene followed when the attorney, realizing that his advice was about to result in the hanging of his client, broke into tears and pleaded with the court not to inflict death. Judge Lindsay replied that there were no mitigating circumstances. Scott's counsel then pleaded for permission to withdraw the plea of guilty and the granting of this plea today permits Scott to go to trial before a jury.

At the meeting of the U.E.L. Celebration Corporation Executive on Thursday afternoon, the problem of the material which is to be used above the foundation of the U.E.L. log cabin memorial was to the fore. Should funds enough come in, it is probable that grey granite as enduring as the hills of North Hastings will be used as the base. Warden Charles S. Rollins, who attended the meeting, suggested the use of Coe Hill granite, which is claimed to be the equal of the best Rock of Ages granite on the market. Light granite would harmonize with the concrete work of the memorial. Should not enough money come in to warrant the purchase of granite, cement and concrete will be utilized. Marbles from the north of the county have been suggested but the question of weathering may stand in the way of the use of the beautifully colored marbles from the Bancroft quarries. The warden is anxious to have the Wollaston township granite used. It would be an opportunity to display before the world in the form of tourists in motors and passengers on the transcontinental railways the qualities of the stone split from the hills in the north.

24 YEARS AGO July 6, 1950

Ten-year-old Clifford Casselman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Casselman, Madoc village, shot and killed himself Friday afternoon, when in an attempt to frighten his sister he placed a revolver against his head and pulled the trigger. The lad was rushed to the office of Dr. George L. Mullin but died 45 minutes after the accident. In the absence of the mother, who was away from home picking berries and of the father who was in the nearby barn, Clifford had found the revolver while searching through his brother's suitcase. His sister, Madeline had told him to put the gun away but the boy put the gun to his head and said, "look I am going to shoot myself," and pulled the trigger. The gun was brought back from overseas by an older brother, Carl, who was keeping the revolver as a keepsake. Coroner Dr. S. Eagleson, of Madoc, said there would be no inquest.

Miss M. F. Mutton, of the King Edward School staff, Peterboro, and former teacher of Madoc Public School, will sail with a group of 40 Canadian teachers for the United Kingdom in the next few weeks. This group of teachers will teach in England for one year on an exchange basis.

The Rev. J. F. Lane, minister of Wellington, Ont., United Church, who recently accepted a call to Trinity United Church, Madoc, takes over his new charge in August. Members of the Wellington church presented Mr. Lane with a combination brief case and overnight bag, and Mrs. Lane with an occasional chair. Miss Helen Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lane, was presented with a hymnary and a half-dozen silver salad forks.

Mrs. C. B. McCoy, who will be on the staff of Madoc Public School in September was honoured by St. John's United Church Sunday School, Tweed, of which she was treasurer. She was recently presented with a motor rug. The choir of the church also presented her with a set of stainless steel kitchenware. She was a member of the choir for 18 years. Mrs. McCoy now resides in Madoc where she will be making her home.

Roscoe B. Doughty, of Norwood, formerly of Eldorado, has obtained his Ph.D., at the University of Toronto, and has been awarded a fellowship by the University. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doughty, of Norwood. Mr. Doughty was graduated from Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, in 1940 with a B.A., and in 1941 joined the RCAF. He became a pilot officer and was shot down over Germany and taken prisoner. Prisoner of war for 18 months, he was released at the end of the war and returned to Canada in 1945. He resumed his studies at that time and got his M.A. at Toronto.

Pembroke, Box 84,
July 1st, 1950.

Reeve of Madoc, Madoc.

Just a note to say a party with me passed down No. 7 Highway, and of all the places of villages and towns, your village of Madoc excels them all for cleanliness and up to date appearances. May it always be so.

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. M. A. Josephs,
Pembroke, Ont.

15 YEARS AGO July 9, 1939

Three persons are in Belleville General Hospital with head cuts and lacerations as a result of a three-vehicle collision in the village of Eldorado late Monday afternoon. Injured are George Potts, 55, and his wife, Augusta, 54, of Bracebridge, and Mrs. Leona Edgar, 49, of Peterborough. All injured persons were occupants of the Potts car. Police said the Potts car was southbound when on the hill immediately north of the CNR track at Eldorado, the vehicle went into a skid and sideswiped a northbound lumber truck driven by Alex Hamilton, of Eldorado. A second car driven by Frank McKee, of Picton, which was following the Potts vehicle then slammed into the wreckage. Both the lumber truck and the Potts auto were almost complete write-offs. Traffic on No. 62 highway was held up for nearly three-quarters of an hour until the wreckage was towed away.

This year the Kiwanis Club is again offering trophies for the largest fish caught in Moira Lake. In the pickerel section, Mrs. Della Wilson, of Marmora, is leading with one which weighed 6 lbs., 4 ounces. Only one bass has been entered, a 3½ pounder caught by Leonard Hazen, of Ellwood City, Pa. No large maskinonge have been reported but several small ones have been caught, in the ten pound class. Recently, there was plenty of excitement when 10-year-old Teddy Duffin and 12-year-old Patsy Kincaid hooked and landed a ten pounder while trolling in lower Moira Lake.

About thirty friends and neighbours met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Trotter, R.R. 3, Madoc, in honour of Miss Ruby Howard, bride-to-be of this month, and presented her with a miscellaneous shower. The afternoon was spent in an appropriate contest and several reading on "advises to the Bride." The lovely gifts were presented from a table beneath an umbrella with pink streamers. After the gifts had been opened and the cards of good wishes read, Ruby expressed her thanks for the good wishes and for the tangible evidence of their wishes. A dainty lunch served by several of the ladies brought an enjoyable afternoon to an end.

Engagement — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Horace Jones, 2540 Shakespeare Street, Victoria, B.C., announce the engagement of their only daughter, Barbara Ruth, to Sub-Lt. (S) John Bruce Murray, RCN, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregor Murray, of Madoc.

Graduates as nurse

Miss Denise Reynolds of Inlington, Ontario, graduated June 20, 1974, from Women's College Hospital School of Nursing, at Convocation Hall, Toronto. She is the daughter of Nelson and Jean Reynolds, formerly of Madoc, and the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren and Mrs. Thomas Reynolds of Madoc. Mr. and Mrs. Warren attended the graduation. Mrs. Reynolds did not attend because of her health.

I hope Montreal does it differently

MUNICH - Two years hence the nations of the world will gather in Montreal for the opening of the 21st Summer Olympic Games.

It's been almost two years since the Olympic flame was doused at Munich Olympic Stadium and the electric scoreboard flashed the message - "See you in Montreal."

I found it an intriguing thought to drop in on the Olympic sites in Munich while the eight quarter-finalists were getting ready for matches in the World Cup of soccer. I wanted to find out what had happened to the $900 million Olympic facilities in two years. It would sort of give us an idea of what could happen to the Montreal sites by 1978.

I wandered into what two years ago was supposed to have been a heavily guarded Olympic village for the athletes. Obviously it wasn't secure or Palestinian guerrillas could not have found their way in to murder 11 Israeli athletes and officials.

Very little has changed at 31 Connolly St., the apartment block that housed the Israeli athletes, except for a marble memorial with German and Hebrew inscriptions in memory of those killed. An elderly German couple happened by, stopped for a moment of silence, then continued their stroll through the village.

A couple of workers were repairing the walls of the building, filling in holes and painting the woodwork. Otherwise, the building is deserted as citizens of Munich are reluctant to occupy a building that was the site of murder.

"I THINK the city of Munich has bought the building for a shrine," said Hans Helmer, one of the workers. "That's why we are sprucing it up a little. We repainted the blood-stained walls, tore out the floor and replaced it with a new one. But people still can't forget the tragedy. That's why nobody would rent these apartments."

The former Israeli building is not the only one deserted. The one across from it used to house the Canadian team and its headquarters. It is also unoccupied. In fact, none of the apartment blocks in the near vicinity are occupied.

It was an eerie feeling to walk through the Olympic site with hardly a soul around except for the students attending the sports school of Munich's Technical University. What a contrast from two years ago when one had to fight his way through tens of thousands of sports fans every day. The fences are gone and so are the guards. Where two years ago you couldn't go anywhere without an identification card, now you feel as if the place belonged to you.

The three large administration buildings that used to employ thousands of officials stand practically empty. The iron beams are rusting away, paint chips are all over the place and the windows probably haven't been cleaned for two years.

In fact, by walking through these deserted avenues one has the distinct feeling the Germans went too far in erecting all these elaborate sites for what they can get out of it now.

I hope the people in Montreal will do it differently.

Jack Ellis dishes out strawberries to Frank Downey at a strawberry social sponsored by the Madoc Progressive Conservative Association at the Madoc Armouries last week. The smiling onlookers are members of the Young Progressive Conservatives, Bonnie Parks, Lori Edwards and Kathy DeMille.

If all strawberry lovers are Progressive Conservative voters, then Jack Ellis, Hastings riding P.C. candidate, could be regarded as choice topping.

About 350 people turned up at the Armouries in Madoc for a strawberry social sponsored by the Progressive Conservative Association last week.

Mr. Ellis, seeking a return to the seat he first won in the federal election of 1972, joined in the festivities, enjoying both the strawberries and the opportunity to greet his many friends, to chat and answer questions.

Speaking briefly on party policies, Mr. Ellis questioned the Trudeau government's actions in the case of kidnappers Jean-Marc Carbonneau and Jacques Lanctot who have recently turned up in Paris, with no attempt being made by the Canadian Government to extradite them for trial.

"These two men were part of the gang that held Mr. Cross, the British High Commissioner, prisoner for many weeks, the same gang that killed Mr. LaPorte. A deal was made for them to go to Cuba in exchange for Mr. Cross's life.

"Sometimes you have to make a deal with people of this sort whether you like it or not. But I cannot understand why they are now in France and why no attempt is being made to bring them back for trial. Is this the type of approach a government should take?"

Honored on 25th anniversary

Family and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon of Queensboro gathered at the Queensboro Institute Hall to honor the couple on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

They were married June 4, 1949, at Ridgetown, and their best man and bridesmaid were able to be with them to celebrate the 25th.

Their family took them out to supper at the Mother's Coffee House to begin the evening and they returned to the hall where approximately 50 friends and family had gathered. Mr. Gordon's brother Bill gave a brief address.

The hall had been suitably decorated for the occasion with pink and blue streamers, a lovely cake which was decorated by Mrs. Bernard Barry, and a congratulatory banner made by two grade 8 boys from Madoc Public School.

The family presented Mrs. Gordon with a lovely pink and white corsage and Mr.

Gordon with a boutonniere. A gift of a large mirror had been presented to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon at Mothers Coffee House from their family, and a money tree, plus several others gifts and cards, were given the couple at the hall.

Dancing was enjoyed by everyone and a buffet lunch was served to close the evening.

"Ruined... completely ruined!"

FAMILY GROWING?

This lovely home in Madoc could be the answer! Located on three large lots, this graceful frame home has been kept in good repair and has had the major renovations that most older homes need. Boasting five bedrooms it's ready for you now. The owner is willing to take back a substantial mortgage.

TWEED

We have two delightful bungalows. A small one bedroom bungalow with a good size living room and a kitchen with an eating area located in Tweed and priced at only $11,000 this is ideally suited for a retired couple or a couple starting out.

We also have a beautiful bungalow that has been completely finished inside. Bright and tastefully decorated this three bedroom bungalow has to be seen to be appreciated. This home features a recreation room, 2 bathrooms, a playroom, laundry room and a fourth bedroom in the basement.

I NEED LISTINGS

1. I have 2 cash buyers for lots in Tweed.
2. I have a letter from a Torontonian who wants approximately 100 acres with or without buildings with some cleared land.
3. I have a buyer for property with water (pond, lake, river, etc.) in the Tweed area.
4. I have the addresses of 2 gentlemen interested in cottage lots.
5. I have buyers for homes around $18,000.00.

Around Hazzard.....

What a pleasant time of year for Mr. Allan Frank's trip to the Gaspé, accompanied by her sister of Ottawa.

The Lloyd Southern family spent the holiday weekend at their summer home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Hodgins and baby Bradley of Timmins spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reid. Mrs. Hodgins and Bradley are staying for two weeks.

Captain and Mrs. Robert Shuter from Petawawa spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reid before leaving for two years in Halifax. Also Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tripp of Wellington came for dinner on Sunday, with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Moorecroft and children of Ottawa but formerly of Belfast, Northern Ireland, spent the holiday weekend at "Valley Croft" and attended the Moorecroft reunion at Hazzards hall and church, helping to revive memories of Moorecroft ancestors who came to Madoc township from Co. Antrim in 1850. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Moorecroft, Grant, Kathryn and Bryan spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. Roy Moorecroft, Minnie and Alma to become better acquainted with their "new relatives."

Angus McKinnon is spending three days this week at the 4H Regional Conference at Trent University, Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Foley should be having a pleasant time in London, presently, at a three day Bus Driver's Conference.

The former "Farell" house is having more exterior improvements by Mr. and Mrs. C. Veerman; and we are also glad to see that the old Diamond place may have a new look some day soon. I believe it already has a nice vegetable garden.

Accompanied by two friends from Queensboro, Miss Catherine Burnside left June 30 on a trip through northern Ontario to Sandy Bay, Edmonton and the west coast.

Dr. and Mrs. E.B. Burnside and family were home for the holiday with parents Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Burnside.

Village of Madoc Financial Statement 1973

To The Members of Council, Inhabitants and Ratepayers of the Corporation of the Village of Madoc

We have examined the 1973 financial statements of the Corporation of the Village of Madoc and its local boards, which are listed on the attached Index. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Corporation of the Village of Madoc and its local boards as at December 31, 1973 and the results of their operations for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted for Ontario municipalities applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

St. Peter's Church

The congregation of the St. Peter's Presbyterian Church is celebrating the 100th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the present building. Special events were planned for a home-coming weekend in June.

On Saturday evening, friends from near and far gathered in the Sunday School auditorium to spend an evening of fellowship together. Among the guests were some members of the Wishart family whose ancestor, Rev. David Wishart was the minister at the time this church was built. Two former ministers, Rev. R.A. Sinclair and Mrs. Sinclair and Rev. Vernon Tozer, Mrs. Tozer and children were present.

Following a delicious buffet dinner, Rev. E.R. Hawkes was chairman for a most interesting and entertaining program. Prayer was offered and a very warm welcome was extended to the people.

Miss Lamoine West, the Centennial Committee Convenor, introduced the members of the committee and expressed her appreciation of the work they had done.

Mr. Wm. Aylsworth conducted an old fashioned hymn sing in which the congregation heartily participated.

The Quintons, a local music group, sang at two different times during the program. Their musical talent and dramatic performance were very much appreciated.

A group of Presbyterian young people who are members of the High School Band under the leadership of Mr. Aylsworth, performed, followed by a piano duet by Jennifer and Alyson Aylsworth.

Thirteen members of the Junior Choir sang a selection, accompanied by Jennifer and Alyson with Mr. Aylsworth as narrator.

A beautiful solo was rendered by Miss Carol Brownson.

Twenty-one members of the Senior Choir sang the Anthem "One World."

From the estate of the late Mrs. Harriet Sharpe, the Women's Missionary Society received $1,000. with which they obtained ten Honorary life membership certificates.

Here's the Answer

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

If you are confined to bed with a strained back, put a satin pillow case under your hips. It will make it much easier to slide or turn in the bed.

If your mahogany dresser is marked up with a ball point pen, spray the marks with hair spray and wipe quickly.

Save several clean milk cartons for your next camping trip. Split and flatten them and you'll find that the heavy waxed cardboard makes a fine surface for cutting meat and cleaning fish. After using, the cartons make good fuel for your campfire.

A good second use for a baby bottle sterilizer is for cooking ears of sweet corn. Stand the corn on end in place of the bottles, fill the sterilizer about one-third full of water and let steam until done.

If the aluminum ribbing around your kitchen table rubs off on arms and clothes, coat the metal with acrylic floor finish. It will prevent any more grey stains.

In the Kitchen

MARINATED MUSHROOMS

- 3/4 cup low-calorie Italian dressing
- 1/4 teaspoon each, dried leaf tarragon, thyme and dill weed
- 1/2 teaspoon snipped chives
- 1 can (6 or 8 ounces) mushroom crowns, drained

Combine dressing with seasonings. Pour over drained mushroom crowns in small bowl; marinate in refrigerator 4 hours or overnight. Serve chilled with crackers.

Fix-It Tip

A garden walk can be made of stone, broken pieces of cement, wood, gravel, bricks. Keep your eyes open for material that can be used for a path.

You also can buy the material for a path as well, but you will find that improvising not only saves money, it makes for a more interesting path as well.

Rubble from a building being torn down might serve. There may be a small charge or you might get it for the hauling. A sidewalk that is being replaced is broken up into chunks first.

"I don't mind your gossiping, Louise, but for the past 10 minutes you've been gossiping about me!"

Bake cookies

Now that school is out and the kids are home we are going to need lots of cookies on hand. If you have to bake cookies in the summer, don't fool around. Bake a batch big enough to last a few days.

The following recipes make a lot of cookies and are easy to do.

The first recipe has an added advantage - many a mother has kneaded her frustrations into the bread dough. Now you can do it with cookies. The squares not only make a full cookie sheet, but are nice enough to serve anytime.

AGRESSION COOKIES

- 3 c firmly packed brown sugar
- 3 c butter or margarine
- 6 c raw oatmeal
- 1 tbs baking soda
- 3 c sifted flour

Place all ingredients in a large bowl in the order given. Mash, knead and squeeze until thoroughly mixed. Form into small balls and place on ungreased cookie sheet. Butter the bottom of a small glass, dip it into white sugar, then mash balls flat with it. Bake at 350 degrees 10 to 12 minutes. Cool a few minutes before removing from sheet in order to firm up. Cool thoroughly before putting away. Makes 12 to 14 dozen.

CHOCOLATE CHIP SQUARES

- 1 c shortening
- 1/2 c white sugar
- 1/2 c brown sugar
- 2 egg yolks
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2 c flour
- 1/2 c flour
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 1/4 tsp baking soda

Combine above ingredients and spread on cookie sheet. Cover with one package of chocolate chips.

Make a meringue with the 2 egg whites, and one cup brown sugar. Spread this over the chocolate chips. Bake at 350 degrees 20 to 25 minutes.

DAD'S COOKIES

- 1 c brown sugar
- 1/2 c white sugar
- 1 tsp vanilla
- 1 cup shortening
- 1 egg
- 1 tsp soda dissolved in 1/4 c boiling water
- Mi Mix above with electric mixer until well blended. Then stir in:
- 2 c sifted flour
- 1 1/2 c rolled oats
- 1 c coconut
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 1/2 tsp salt

Roll in balls and press down on cookie sheet with a moistened fork, flouring hands if necessary. Bake at 350 degrees 10 to 12 minutes. Makes six dozen.

Rice is Nice ...

Rice is enjoyed by millions in a variety of ways. As a potato substitute it makes a different dinner vegetable. It can be creamed in a pudding or teamed with a little meat, fish or poultry. Cook rice under cover just until tender and fluffy. There are many varieties and it pays to experiment with the "homemade" types. For starters, try the regular white polished rice (short, medium or long grain). "Converted" (parboiled) rice is a long grain rice that has been polished like white rice but due to special processing has retained more of the nutrients found in the husk of brown rice. Vitamin-packed whole grain brown rice adds a nutty flavor to any dish; it makes an interesting stuffing. Wild rice, not a true rice but the seed of an aquatic grass, is long grain and dark greenish. Finally, when time is valuable take advantage of the instant brands available. Mrs. Green is available to talk "shopping" to groups. Call 299-6623 or write - 300 The East Mall, Toronto, M8B 6S6.

The Kingston District Folk Art Council provided the entertainment at the Peace Park, Saturday.

Big crowd, but Berton fails to show

By MICHAEL LEA

Superlatives were the order of the day Saturday as the Lester B. Pearson Peace Park's annual service boasted the largest crowd and greatest number of arts and crafts exhibits in its seven year history.

Guests of honor for the day's ceremonies included Geoffrey Pearson, son of the late prime minister; Rt. Rev. Monsignor C. E. Baker, pastor of St. Carthagh parish in Tweed; Mr. Harold Varty, representing the area's senior citizens; Mr. Guy Hughes chairman of the Moira River Conservation Authority; Mr. Ray Burris, president of Madoc's Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Doug. Storey, president of Tweed's Chamber of Commerce and Miss Judy Labarge, Winter Carnival Queen.

Master of Ceremonies for the event was Rev. J.H. Thompson.

First to address the crowd was Monsignor Baker.

"So many people would like to blame the economic situation for world troubles," he said, "They would like to forget that the real cause is in ourselves."

The Monsignor cited the affluence of life today as the primary reason for the world's situation, claiming that western nations have adopted the "life of ancient Rome."

"We are not willing to preserve what our ancestors have left us," he said, explaining how pioneers "had thanked God when they had enough to eat or a roof over their heads."

"We created such a high state of civilization, of affluence, we've forgotten all about the underprivileged nations."

"We're setting aside Christ, Christianity is failing," he warned, claiming that one cause of discontentment in the world was people's reluctance to give up the pleasures they've been used to.

As an example of the selfishness in the world, he noted Canada's own east-west oil conflict.

"This is the state of the world today," he said.

The Monsignor ended by hoping that the Peace Park's service would inspire all those present "to have peace in their hearts."

He was followed by the presentation by Napanee Beaver publisher Earl Morrison to Mr. Pearson of a series of articles on the family's ancestors.

In his own brief address, Mr. Pearson thanked and congratulated the Peace Park's chairman Roy Cadwell for the initiative he had shown in erecting the park.

"We owe a real debt of thanks," he said.

The names of the year's Friends of the Peace Park were then announced with Mr. Les Rawlings, Manager of Tweed's Bank of Montreal; farmer Jack Nolan; Flinton, Ont., housewife Mrs. Alice Reavie and lecturer Mrs. Irene Jones receiving the commendations.

The service ended with the presentation, in absentia, of the Man of the Year Peace Award to media personality and author, Pierre Berton.

With final request for peace, Master of Ceremonies, Rev. Thompson ended the service.

Police crack down on crime

Ontario Provincial Police are visiting local businessmen these days to enlist their support in an all out province wide crime prevention program.

OPP Brian Turner, Community Services Co-Ordinator, is in overall charge of the project in this area.

OPP Rene Brownlee, Community Services Officer, is directly responsible for the local visitations.

The police are visiting the local businessmen to get acquainted with them, to look over their premises to see what could be done to help prevent crimes, and to advise merchants of just what to do when they discover a crime has been committed.

The police are also taking names and telephone numbers of people with keys to the various places of business, so that if a break and enter is discovered, and the owner cannot be found, another staff member can be contacted to look over the premises to help determine what, if anything, is missing.

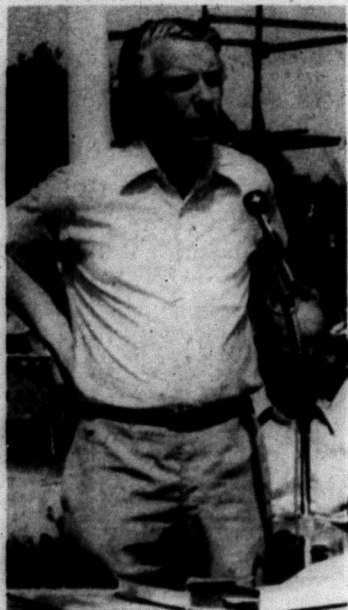

Officer Turner notes that in 1968 there were 367,294 criminal offences committed in Canada, while in 1972, just four years later, a total of 519,265 criminal offences were committed - an increase of 50 per cent.

He likens the program to fire prevention, or accident prevention - a ounce of prevention being worth a pound of cure.

"If people take the rising crime rate as normal, we have a very serious problem on our hands," Officer Turner told this newspaper.

"But I've really had an eyeopener. Everybody we have come in contact with has been very enthusiastic about what we are trying to do, and have expressed a willingness to co-operate."

Geoffrey Pearson, son of the late prime minister, spoke briefly to the crowd, congratulating chairman Roy Cadwell for setting up the Peace Park.

Mark the Battle of Boyne

The village of Madoc Saturday was the scene of a parade commemorating the Battle of the Boyne.

Festivities began at the Madoc Fair Grounds where a meal was served to an estimated 350 village and area residents by the LOBA of Madoc.

Among the areas represented in the parade were Kingston, Frontenac, Prince Edward County, Selby, Denbigh and Centre Hastings.

Crowds lined the streets as the parade wound its way through the village, along Wellington and Elgin Streets, then east on Prince Albert to the fairgrounds. Master was Mervin Lees of Madoc.

Speakers at the event were Rev. (Capt.) Thompson, Reeve T.C. Barton, Past Grand Mistress Pearl Holmes. Presiding over the festivities was a Grand Master from Ottawa.

HE LOVES TO HELP

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

Howie is an engaging youngster, just a bit self-conscious about having his picture taken.

Small-boned and slim, seven-year-old Howie has big dark eyes, brown hair and fair skin. He is in good general health but is susceptible to colds and has had several bouts of pneumonia. He eats and sleeps well.

Outgoing, lovable Howie is a self-effacing youngster who seems younger than his seven years. He needs lots of affection and reassurance. He enjoys playing with one or two children at a time but is not happy in large groups of youngsters where he seems to feel overlooked and lost.

Tests have sometimes showed Howie as average, sometimes below. His Grade One teacher felt he was average in ability. His attention span, which used to be short, is increasing and he is beginning to develop self-confidence.

Howie is normally cheerful and at his happiest when he is helpful to either his foster mother or foster father. He loves snowmobiling and is fascinated by cars, both real and toy. It appears he will have mechanical ability. He attends Sunday School regularly.

The Children's Aid Society feels this boy will blossom in a warm adoption home. He needs relaxed, experienced parents who will give love and encouragement and yet allow him to mature at his own pace. He should be the youngest child in his adopting family.

To inquire about adopting Howie, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

Modern farm machinery is complicated, and often needs adjustment for varying field and crop conditions. Shut down the machine first. It is too easy to lose a finger, or worse.

Study ways of providing protection

The Ontario Employment Standards branch is studying ways to provide more protection to apartment superintendents, its director John Scott says.

Do Roach, president of the Ontario Housing Employees Union, Local 767 of the Canadian Union of Public Employees, charged the superintendents were getting as little as $1.30 an hour and are expected to be on duty 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

They are at the mercy of apartment owners because they are excluded from the minimum wage and hours of work provisions of the Employment Standards Act.

Scott said the branch had been working for a year on the problem of providing more protection through the labor ministry. He said his department is taking the attitude the apartment owners and managers must prove why superintendents should be excluded from the labor legislation protecting most other workers.

But he termed it a difficult problem because of the nature of the job charged the union with failing to respond after being asked in February and again in May to make recommendations.

Roach claimed the union had made an appeal more than a year ago on behalf of the superintendents and had heard nothing since from the Employment Standards branch.

He said the union was meeting opposition in trying to organize the superintendents and in one case a husband and wife team who have been certified as a bargaining unit were "worked night and day" afterwards by their employer.

The contract dispute is due to go to conciliation at the owners' request.

Apartment building companies contend tenants insist superintendents are on duty at all times. Companies point out superintendents are given an apartment as part of their deal with employers.

"A superintendent has to be a saint, a diplomat, a handyman and an information bureau," veteran superintendent John Liefing sums up. "He has to be on duty 24 hours a day and he has to have nerves of steel."

"We deserve a little more support."

Ontario believes that residents 65 or over, the blind and the disabled should have an income of at least $2600 a year.

In July, Ontario will introduce a Special Benefits program. It will place extra funds on top of federal Guaranteed Income Supplements—enough to guarantee the elderly who are qualified residents of Ontario an income of $2600 a year. Blind and disabled people who qualify for Family Benefits will also be entitled to these special benefits.

Beginning September 1, approved drugs prescribed by a doctor or dentist will be available, free of charge, to those qualifying for the special benefits outlined above, Family Benefits or the federal Guaranteed Income Supplement. Drug cards will be mailed automatically. You don't have to apply for them.

Who will receive these special benefits?

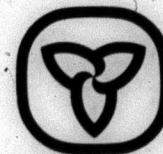

If you are 65 or over
(with an annual income of less than $2600)...and you now receive both Old Age Security and the Guaranteed Income Supplement... you will receive your benefits cheque each month, automatically. You do not have to apply for it.

The program has been initiated by the commissioner of the OPP to intensify the force's efforts at preventing crime.

Officers are visiting and working in local co-operation with local governments, citizens groups, businesses, citizens at large and media to unify community resources and police efforts as a means to reduce crime.

It also provides more personal contact between policemen and the citizens they service.

The officers are also accepting speaking invitations to interested groups, clubs, associations and businesses.

As we see it Gossip!

Most of us take delight in discovering the follies and sins and shortcomings of others and in chatting knowingly about them.

Gossip does bring us some cheap comfort, giving us nice feelings of superiority.

Our weaknesses and failures do not seem so serious when we can compare them with the monstrous ones of some people we know. We like to gossip because it generally makes us feel much better about ourselves.

Behind much of our gossiping is the mechanism the psychologists call "projection." There is the tendency to attribute to others our own reprehensible attitudes and feelings.

A London psychiatrist, Dr. J. A. Hadfield, has commented on this tendency:

"In judging others we trumpet abroad our secret faults. We personalize our unrecognized failings, and hate in others the very faults to which we are secretly addicted. Like the lark fluttering with agitation over her nest, we exhibit most flagrantly the very thing we would hide."

Think about that the next time you are tempted to assist in the distribution of malicious rumors about someone you know.

Censorious gossip generally tells more about the person who does the gossiping than about the victim.

In Albert Camus' novel, The Fall, the narrator gives this warning to his companion: "People hasten to judge in order not to be judged themselves...The judgement you are passing on others eventually snaps back in your face, causing some damage."

Elzevir, Grimsthorpe council notes

The Townships of Elzevir and Grimsthorpe, meeting in July session:

Authorized the placement of six loads of gravel on the Lingham Lake Road.

Agreed with a resolution from Pittsburg Township that the penalty on tax arrears be increased to two per cent per month.

Decided to invite bids to install two 500 gallon storage tanks and two pumps and to quote price for diesel fuel and regular gas.

Decided to meet again August 6 at 8 p.m.

Bill Smiley

They are trying to buy me out

by Bill Smiley

There is a fair bit of panic in the financial world these days. One of Germany's big banks failed. The stock market is more like a swamp than a market. Inflation is scaring the wits out of people and even politicians.

It was inevitable that some of us bigger figures in the financial and business game would be affected personally. Sure enough, I've been caught in a personal bind and I don't know whether to go for broke or go for the hills.

I've been a pretty big shareholder of a stock called Peel Elder. I have 25 shares. It's a long story and I've told it before. But I got in on the ground floor, as we say on Bay St. and Wall St. These are a couple of well known streets in the financial world. One of them runs down to the bay, in case you want to drown yourself when the market is slumping. The other has a wall for pounding your head against in the same eventuality.

Well, as I was saying, I got in early. Was discharged from the air force with a couple of thousand bucks the paymaster had thoughtfully put away for me while I was in prison camp.

I had decided I wasn't going to slug and sweat all my life just to make a living. I was going to make it fast, and make it big.

I looked the field over pretty carefully, searching for a career with a built-in escalator. And the field looked right back at me with a cold and steely eye, saying, in effect, "What do you know how to do, besides crash-landing an aircraft in a plowed field?"

There wasn't really much I could answer to that. So, I thought, "The heck with the big corporations, when they can't recognize talent, drive and sheer ability, even though these are staring them right in their cold, corporate eye."

The final straw arrived when a personnel manager at Bell Telephone told me warmly that yes, he thought there might be a real future for me with the company, and yes, he thought he might find a place for me in three or four months, but I'd have to start at the bottom, like everyone else.

It turned out that the bottom was sweeping floors at something like $48 a week. Even in those days The Bell paid good wages. That's probably why they have to ask for a rate increase every couple of years, to compensate for their incredible generosity to their employees.

Anyway, the bottom didn't have much appeal. I'd had something in mind more like Vice-President in charge of Public Relations.

So I shook him warmly by the hand, with that sincerity that only a V-P in charge of PR can muster, thanked him, and said, "Mustn't take any more of your time. I have to dash to the Royal York for lunch with Jack McClelland of McClelland and Stewart, then catch the afternoon train for Montreal, where President Crump of the CPR has been trying to get hold of me for a week. By the way, if you get sick of The Bell, look me up in a year or so, and I might have something for you. Just contact Bill Smiley Associates, Incorporated, not to mention Limited."

At least I left him with his mouth open, but I was seething inside. Some people seethe on the outside, but I always do it inside.

Anyway, I strode out of there, muttering, "All right. O.K. If that's the way they want it. I'll go it alone. I'll destroy them all within five years. I'll plunge into the stock market and buy them all up and have mergers and conglomerates and caviar and all sorts of stuff." Even then, young and inexperienced, I knew the jargon of big business.

So I plunged. It was like a butterfly plunging at a bull elephant.

Oh, I didn't just roar around buying up companies. I didn't buy just any old stocks. I wish I had. I bought some so new the ink wasn't dry on the certificates.

But I proceeded with caution. I wasn't going to be taken in by some smooth-talking operator working out of a telephone booth.

On the advice of my landlady's sister, who had her hair done every Wednesday with a friend who baby-sat for a prominent stock-broker's former wife, I decided to plunge into Northern Ontario gold.

My first choice was a lucky one. I bought into a company with a property so rich that even the moose who used it for pasture had gold fillings in their teeth.

And I didn't fool around with penny stocks. That's for the little guy with two hundred bucks to invest. No, I went for the solid, blue chip stuff.

I snapped up one thousand shares of this stock for 22 cents a share. Within two days it had shot up to 23 cents. I was on my way, and I've never looked back since. It hurts too much. In three weeks the stock wasn't listed on the financial page. I still think it was because some linotype operator was sore because some of us were making fortunes, and he left the name of the mine out of the list through sheer spite.

But all this is getting us nowhere. I started out to tell you how a couple of big conglomerates or condominiums or whatever they call them are ganging up to get hold of my 25 shares of Peel Elder. They've offered to buy them for $13 a share and I could have sold them a month ago for $11.75 a share.

There's something fishy going on, and if I can get to the bottom of it, I'll expose the whole thing in next week's column. Just hang in there and wait. I don't want to see other simple stockholders get hurt.

Queen's Park

System keeping people on welfare?

There is a young working mother in London Ontario who found a job to support her family and to get her name off the welfare rolls. But now the "system" may force her back on welfare.

You see, she cares a lot about how her child is raised. At present, she leaves the child at a day-care centre while she works. She is satisfied that her child gets the proper care and attention it needs while she is away.

But, she says, if Ontario puts through its proposals for watering down the Day Nurseries Act, she will quit her job and stay home with her child to ensure it is properly cared for.

This is only one voice in thousands that have been crying out against the proposed regulation changes since they were first introduced in the Legislature by Margaret Birch on June 4.

The changes she proposes would permit non-profit, parent-run day-care centres to operate without qualified staff; reduce the number of staff to children; and permit centres to operate above the third storey of a building - a dangerous move in event of a fire.

Mrs. Birch, in the face of wide-spread criticism of her proposed changes, was amazingly adamant about reconsidering them. But for the first time it appeared that there may be some hope of her backtracking.

Attacks against her proposals came from the Opposition parties, child educators, the Ontario Teachers' Federation Committee on Day Care and from public and private groups in the field.

One of the leaders in the fight against the new proposals is Margaret Campbell (Liberal, Toronto St. George) who says she's not on a "witch-hunt" but is worried about "big operators" making excess profits at the expense of proper child care.

Current staff-to-child ratios under the Act are three to 10 for babies under 18 months, three to 14 for children 18 months to two years; four to 34 for two to four-year-olds; three to 35 for five-year-olds; and three to 50 for six to nine-year-olds.

Mrs. Birch has proposed ratios of one to four; one to six; one to 12; one to 16 and one to 25 for each of the above categories.

Mrs. Campbell is right when she says that necessary "mothering" of a child would suffer by increasing the number of children for each staff member. And she is right when she says that it takes trained staff to "be able to catch problems that a child may have and which an untrained person wouldn't catch."

R. R. Tomlinson, Toronto's Deputy Commissioner of social services, said that if the staff numbers and qualifications are reduced "the physical and emotional needs of these babies could never be met" and parents might be better off to stay at home and look after the children themselves than to place them in "a group setting with inadequate supervision."

Mrs. Birch said it will not be two or three months before her policy is implemented and in the meantime an advisory committee on day care will be set up "to look at the program."

She is confident that her policy will stay intact, but the odds are the committee will recommend against using untrained staff or changing the staff-to-children ratios.

Today's health

Your annual checkup Is it really necessary?

by David Woods

Should you have a medical checkup every year?

Medical opinion is sharply divided on this question: some physicians believe that everyone should see the doctor every 12 months whether he needs to or not; others, like Dr. Harding LeRiche of the University of Toronto, consider that the regular checkup isn't necessary for all of us — but for some people it's absolutely essential.

LeRiche says that men over 40 should be checked at regular intervals, and that women should undergo annual screening for possible cancer of the breast and cervix.

The routine physical checkup probably represents the best means at our disposal for treating disease in its early stages. But practicing physicians simply don't have the time or the resources to "look at everybody for everything."

That's why many of them recommend that the so-called "patient at risk" should particularly avail himself of this kind of preventive medicine.

Who is this patient? Well, anyone with a family history of a particular disease — especially heart trouble, high blood pressure or cancer; people with serious weight change (loss or gain); those with persistent chest or abdominal pains, or a continuing cough.

And if you notice sudden changes in your general health — or if you just plain don't feel too well and haven't seen a doctor for a while — it's probably time to go along and have a checkup.

Checkups often reveal incipient disease problems — problems that can be put right before they become too serious.

When you do go for a medical checkup, especially if you haven't had one for a while, make sure that it's a comprehensive one: if it's three years since you saw your doctor, and you visit him for a particular problem, ask him to give you a complete examination.

The Ontario Health Insurance Plan (OHIP) covers the annual checkup for everyone over six years of age.

An even better investment, despite the sophisticated and easily available resources of modern medicine, is a lifestyle conducive to good health. Cutting out — or cutting down — smoking; and developing sensible patterns of diet and exercise, won't necessarily keep you out of the doctor's office. But they'll probably help you see him less often.

Two worthy champions at Bobcaygeon contests

Two worthy champions, each in their right, will be on stage front and centre when the "Kawartha Lakes-Ontario Open" Fiddle and Step Dance Contests open their doors on Friday and Saturday, July 26th and 27th.

There will be afternoon and evening performances at The Bobcaygeon-Verulam Community Centre. Friday's program begins at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. — the same starting times apply to Saturday when the evening's finals conclude with a big wind-up dance featuring Frank Leahy's Orchestra.

Graham Townsend marks his 5th consecutive yearly visit since the contest began in 1970. In 1971 Rudy Meeks won top honors, and this year marks his third consecutive guest appearance. Graham won the Canadian Open Fiddle Contest at Shelburne four times. In August of this year Rudy will be trying to make it three years in a row.

Both of these fiddlers have large followings from among fiddle music lovers. Many of them are expected to come to Bobcaygeon to see them.

One foot in the furrow' by Bob Trotter

They would be describing the great misunderstandings between city people and farm people. And this lack of knowledge about what goes on in farming is a problem farmers should be worrying about.

A survey conducted recently in Toronto schools indicated that 50 per cent of the young people did not know that milk comes from cows. Canada's minister of agriculture took it one step further recently when he suggested a lot of older people still seem to think that a cow can be turned off on Friday night and turned on again on Monday morning. In other words, he was saying that few people realize that a farmer — a dairy farmer — has to work 365 days a year. Weekends and holidays mean nothing to those marvellous Canadian milk machines known as cows.

Recently, I was talking with a good friend of mine from the city. He spent his childhood in Toronto and has travelled extensively but his life centres around the city. He visited our place for a weekend this spring. We sat outside on the sunporch at our place — he called it a deck but we have always called it a porch — drinking in the super sounds and smells of a summer night.

Naturally, the conversation got around to farmers and farming. He pooh-poohed my contention that farmers have been the low men on the income totem pole for 20 years.

"How many farmers do you know who paid income tax?" he asked while waving a tall, cool glass in the breeze. "They ripoff the city dwellers just the same as the big corporations. They get subsidized for inefficiency and their marketing boards are nothing more than an excuse to keep prices high."

Because he is a good friend, I didn't throw him off the property. It is such monumental misunderstandings as these that throw the farmer into such a poor light among city dwellers. If—and I don't believe it entirely — few farmers pay income tax it was because they didn't make enough on their operation to warrant payment.

I tried to explain that the average farm income in 1973, supposed to be the best year ever for farmers, was less than $7,500; that most laborers in construction work, for

But farmers, to be competitive today, need a capitalization factor of at least $150,000. Investing that capital at eight or 10 per cent would give that farmer a greater return on his money than remaining on the farm.

Subsidies are only one way to keep farmers in business, I said, and most farmers dislike subsidies just as much as city people dislike having governments which pay them. If farmers could get adequate returns on their labor and investment, they would sneer at subsidies, too.

As for marketing boards, there are only one or two which operate on a supply-management basis, notably the tobacco board.

I likened marketing boards to labor unions. I said that labor unions have been a great driving force in this country to elevate the lot of the working man. Without them, we would still be working under Dickensian conditions.

And marketing boards are simply the method farmers have found will work for their benefit in the market place. Without them, conditions would be chaotic and the drift from the farm to the cities would be even greater.

"Let 'em quit farming altogether," he brashly said. "We'll buy our food from somebody else. And we'll use the farms for recreation."

And that's where he lost the argument. I explained that Japan hasn't got a beef industry and Japanese people are paying $9.10 a pound for beef. They are buying Canadian pork, too, because it is the best in the world and are paying astronomical prices for it.

And that is just a small sample of what could happen, I said, driving the point home. "If the trend out of farming continues, you may have some excellent recreation land but you'll not have much fun riding your bicycle through a farm with an empty belly."

The world food experts are saying that, by 1980, more than 800,000 people will starve to death annually in this world. If for no other reason, farmers should be encouraged to grow all they can. Even if Canadians have to subsidize farmers here to keep them producing, isn't it worthwhile if only a handful of Canadians go hungry and maybe a few hundred thousand people in the rest of the world benefit from Canadian farm production?

New exhibition of stoneware in County Museum

A new exhibition of stoneware is being installed in the County Museum, at 250 Bridge St. E., Belleville.

A private collector has loaned a large series of the pottery of the Hart Family to the museum for the duration of the summer.

They trace the development of the well known blue marked pots from the first works in Fulton, New York, through the companies at Picton to the conclusion in the Belleville Pottery Company.

The unique "ride upon" churn is of particular interest to all stoneware collectors.

The museum is open to the public Tuesday to Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and on Sundays from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. It is closed on Mondays throughout July and August.

50 YEARS AGO

Chas. Conley, Madoc, has the honour of capturing the largest Maskinonge ever known to have been caught in Moira Lake. The monster weighed thirty-three pounds, was not caught without some sacrifice to the fisherman. When Mr. Conley felt the fish on his line he hastily put the latter in his mouth while turning the boat. The line caught between his two front teeth, and the fish in its efforts to escape acted as a dentist and forcibly removed one of Mr. Conley's front teeth.

On Monday, June 23rd, a daughter, Marie Beatrice, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. McCoy of Cooper.

Mr. Frank Taylor left in the Review office today, some stalks of corn grown in one hill that was planted on May 30th and measures 7 feet, 6 inches. This is extra good growth for 60 days.

Cross & Co., of Madoc, are having their August Reductions sale on. Clothes Baskets are selling for $1.00; Dustless Mop for $1.00; Children's Gingham Dresses for $1.00; Dress Voiles for $.50; Children's Rompers clearing at $.59.

Mrs. John Pack, of Eldorado, left at the Review office yesterday, an extra large hen's egg, measuring six and a half inches by eight inches.

The funeral of Mr. James Burrell, Ivanhoe, was held on Wednesday afternoon. The funeral service was held in St. James Church, Rawdon. The deceased was 78 years of age. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Wilcox and one son, John, who lives on the homestead. The Rev. E. Smart officiated at the funeral service.

The campers of Moira Lake spent a very enjoyable evening on Wednesday last when they were entertained by the boys of Camp Community. The evening was spent in listening to numbers from the radio and community singing. About 10:30 refreshments were served. As this was the boys' last evening at camp the campers from the south shore treated them to candy and fruits as appreciation of the many courtesies and acts of kindness shown them during the time they were in camp.

Hoard & Moorcroft's Selling Out Sale continues. Men's 4-point invisible suspenders are selling for $.25 each; Ladies' and Misses' white canvass shoes from $.25 to $1.50; Men's work boots for $3.25 a pair; School bags, genuine leather, are selling at $.98 each.

Detlor: The local L.O.L. celebrated the 12th at Hybla. Except for being rather warm, though favored with a nice cool breeze, the day could be termed a very fine day, and many motored there as well as an excursion train from Bannockburn.

From time to time our educational system has been severely criticized because while educating the mind it leaves the hand and the eye wholly uneducated but a piece of work done by Master Robert Whytock, son of Mr. Walter Whytock, who received a course in Manual Training in Madoc Public School under the supervision of the principal, Mr. Hough, where both the hand and the mind were brought into co-operation in the production of useful and beautiful works compels us to speak favorably of this system of education.

24 YEARS AGO

The congregation of Sacred Heart of Mary Church gathered at Father Hyland's home to honour him on his anniversary of 35 years in priesthood. Presentations were made by six small children and an address was read by Miss Agnes Walsh. Father Hyland thanked them very genially for the kind sentiments and useful gifts. Mrs. Murphy donated an anniversary cake. Following lunch they departed wishing him many happy returns.

William Lyon Mackenzie King, former Prime Minister of Canada, died peacefully at his summer home, near Ottawa, Saturday evening, following an acute attack of pneumonia, suffered late Thursday afternoon.

On Tuesday evening, June 6th, the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Bailey met at their home to spend a social evening with them before their departure to Hazzard's and to extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Christie Bailey (nee Miss Ruth Empey) who were recently married.

On Thursday of last week thirty-eight members of O'Hara's Sunday School held a picnic at Crystal Beach. A bountiful lunch was enjoyed by all and the afternoon was spent in races and swimming.

New Telephone rates went into effect as of July 22nd. Madoc rates are as follows: Residence Service--individual line, $2.50; 2-party line, $2.20; rural, $1.90; extensions, $1.00. Business Service--individual line, $3.65; 2-party line, $3.00; rural, $2.35; extensions, $1.25.

On Wednesday, July 5th, Mrs. T. L. Nickle celebrated her 79th birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Follis, Bancroft.

A dream of many years was partially fulfilled on Wednesday afternoon of last week when Reeve Jack Kincaid turned the first sod for the waterworks and sewerage system for Madoc Village. The contract was awarded the Diamond Construction Co. some time ago and during the past week a steam shovel has been busy working on the excavation for the disposal plant on the Danford property. Mr. Jack Livingstone has been engaged by the village as their inspector while the work is being done.

15 YEARS AGO

A meeting of considerable interest to local residents was held at the Queen's Motel, Belleville, on Tuesday, July 21st for the purpose of discussing the road from Bancroft to Belleville and to see what action might be taken to have a better highway. Present at the meeting were representatives of the Madoc and District Chamber of Commerce, the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, the City of Belleville, Elmer Sandercock, Hastings West, and Clarke T. Rollins, Hastings East. Those present from Madoc Chamber of Commerce were: Keller, President, H. Roscoe, A. Burris, R. McCoy, G. Devolin, V. A. McMurray, E. Mulrooney, G. Pigden and T. Ross, Secretary. After considerable discussion it was decided to appoint a special committee to approach County Council at the next meeting to have them request the Government to extend No. 62 Highway to Belleville. This committee is to consist of two members from each municipality with V. A. McMurray as chairman, Harry Roscoe, Madoc, Gerald Hyde, Mayor of Belleville, W. T. Elliot, President of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, and two members from Bancroft to be appointed.

Rev. Murray J. McKnight, pastor of the Madoc Wesleyan Methodist Church, was ordained to the ministry on Sunday, July 26th, at Silver Lake Wesleyan Methodist Campground.

Last Friday night Mayor Hyde, of Belleville, was the speaker at the Kiwanis regular meeting and gave an interesting and thought provoking address on municipal affairs. He was introduced by Kel Kincaid and Kiwanis appreciation was extended by Harry Roscoe. Madoc Village Council was represented at the meeting by councillors Percy Gunn, Ken West, Walter Armstrong, and Tom Burnside.

A very popular member of a well-known Hastings County family, Allan James McCoy, died in Belleville General Hospital on Saturday, July 25th, following a month-long illness, in his 39th year. Born in Madoc, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCoy, he lived in that district all his life, received his education in Madoc, operated a grocery store in Madoc, and was well known by the citizens of this community. A member of St. Peter's Presbyterian Church of Madoc, and of the I. O. O. F. of Madoc, and the Canadian Legion, Branch 363, Madoc, he served overseas with the Army during the Second World War.

Hospitalized by accident

A two-car collision at the junction of Highways 7 and 62 has resulted in the hospitalization of the driver and three passengers in one of the cars.

Police report that Mary Ann Blomfield, Barrie was taken to hospital with fractures while three passengers were injured slightly. They were Alfred Bloomfield, also of Barrie, Dawn Warner, and Charles Donnelly, of North Gore, Ont.

Driver of the second car, Ronald Harry Freiward was uninjured.

PAINTING MAKES GOOD SENSE

..The new paint technology makes it easier to have attractive farm buildings with a greater variety of colour combinations.

..At one time, all barns were red, because red lead barn paint would fill rough wood and cover old boards better than any other kind. Modern paints, using new ingredients, cover better, go on easier, and often wear longer than the paints available only a few years ago.

..For example, with alkyd resins and pigment for durability and colour retention (combined with a specific amount of linseed oil for controlled penetration of the wood) you can be sure of a good job of barn painting. Despite the fact that the wood is very porous and it's been a long time since the old buildings were last done.

..Through research, paint chemists have developed barn paint formulations that give maximum protection from weathering. The new paint is drawn into the wood rather than sitting on the surface where it is easily worn away by rain, snow, wind and sun.

Paint lengthens the life of wooden buildings by preventing cracking, and subsequent dry rot. With steelclad buildings, painting inhibits rust, and so lengthens the metal's life span.

..Just as important as reducing maintenance and depreciation costs is the improved appearance of the farmstead and the pride of ownership of buildings that look well cared for.

..The resale value of the farm is higher, too, if the buildings have that cared-for look that comes with regular painting. You may not be thinking about the future of your farm in terms of its sale value, but every so often plans must be changed unexpectedly. Good building maintenance, through painting, can be an extra dividend.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Judges, Madoc, were also callers in town one evening.

Mrs. Lottie Wood, accompanied by two sisters, left for Vancouver and other points on a bus trip last week.

ional period, Mrs. Chambers read a helpful meditation concerning our dual citizenship with God and our fellow man. Consider, "Even no two finger-prints are the same--all made different by our Maker." She closed with prayer and our offerings were given and dedicated.

A brief business time followed with the reading of minutes, and the treasurer's report of $11.50 for June. In the correspondence, Mrs. G. Blackburn read in part, of a "jigsaw church" at Mississauga, where all denominations work together in projects, thus continuing the World Day of Prayer ecumenical ideas all through the year, not for just the one day.

To prepare for the wedding of the 13th, a work bee was planned and the salesbarn project for August 12th discussed.

recently" roll call pictured a wide range of beautiful things from a carpet of violets on a lawn, and a tiny new-born babe, to a Mother Bear and two cubs crossing a roadway.

Our hostess invited us to the cool, comfort of the recreation room, ideal for the showing of slides by Miss Alma Moorcroft--with pictures and a bit of history of a few of the older, now unused church buildings in our township; various pictures of Victoria College and grounds, where Mrs. C. Blackburn and Alma Moorcroft researched June 1973 for three days in United Church of Canada Archives and library; and a third group of pictures "right around home"--farm, garden, birds, animals, flowers, two being the beautiful Cardinal Lobelia taken at the creek near Eldorado, and the lovely Ladyslipper in Madoc--all depicting interesting bits of this beautiful, essential part of our Nation, and good citizenship in preserving Beauties of Nature.

Mrs. Chambers (Audrey) extended thanks and closed with prayer.

Hostess and co-hostess, June and Audrey then served a choice of cold or hot beverage and other tasty refreshments.

Hastings show is shaping up

Hastings Centennial Dog Show is shaping up into a 'really b-i-g affair.'

Entries are being filed from all over the place, and are still being accepted. Registrations are available at the Village Meat Market.

Field Trials featuring the Pine Ridge Retriever Club will kick off the Saturday, July 20th show, at 10 a.m.

A mutt show will take place in the afternoon at 1 p.m., for the kids, and will be followed by a show for all classes of purebreds in the arena.

All youngsters under 16 will be admitted free with no registration fees. All others will be charged either a 50 cents registration fee or a $1. per dog entrance fee for retriever and purebred classes.

Ribbons will be awarded winners of the various divisions and trophies will be awarded to the grand champions in the mutt and purebred classes.

Around Hazzards Community

July 1st, Mr. Boyd Moorcroft and son Brent, of Belleville, availed themselves of the opportunity of a day on a farm giving Ross and Grant Moorcroft a hand with the current project.

Gayle and Grant Ketcheson, Susan and Ian made a pleasant surprise call at Valley Croft one evening last week on their way to call on Ross and Marilyn Moorcroft.

Mr. Wallace Pitt of Oshawa spent a few days at home with his parents before attending Ministry of Education Principal's course at Queen's University.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Salisbury and family of Massasauga spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Pitt.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Earl and Gordon Sager in the untimely death of their brother Kenneth, in Ottawa Civic Hospital. Several Hazzards friends attended the funeral.

Mrs. Earl Burnside entertained at dinner and the evening on Tuesday, Alma and Minnie Moorcroft, Olive Ashe and Anna Carman.

Mrs. Carl Reid, in honour of her daughter, Cathy, Mrs. Brian Hodgins, and Bradley, the first Reid grandchild, entertained at afternoon tea on Friday, Gayle Ketcheson and children and Minnie and Alma Moorcroft.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Diamond were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Moorcroft on the weekend and attended the celebration in Madoc on Saturday.

Glad to hear that Mrs. Ward Howard is able to, and has returned home from hospital. It is also good to hear that Angus McKinnon's accident to his hand in the baler was only one cut finger.

The new milking parlour at Mr. Ross Moorcroft's went into production during the week, making it now a no-back-bending task.

The phones of this line are now back in operation on the 6th day. Makes one realize its convenience.

Ria and Ross Gratton spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Howard; Dina and Ted Brady came for Saturday, the two men helping with the hay to finish the job.

Minnie Moorcroft attended service at Trinity, Madoc and had dinner with Bertha and Bob Moorcroft. Many people missed a fine service and sermon.

185 register area swim program

On July 1st, 185 children registered with the Lennox and Addington Swimming Program began RedCross Swimming and Water Safety lessons at Marble Lake, near Cloyne. Classes are taught by Doug Scott and Debbie Smith of Napanee, Cathy Carey of Northbrook and Ben Miedema of Kaladar.

The program continues for 4 weeks after which time the children, aged 5 yrs. to 17 yrs. will be eligible for Red Cross certificates.

The children are bused from Kaladar, Flinton, Northbrook, Harlowe, Cloyne, and Denbigh to Marble Lake each morning. The program is fortunate to have bus drivers Don Clark and Rev. John Newton back again driving for the second summer.

The cost of the project for 1974 is met by donations from the area township councils, Land O'Lakes Lions Club, Cloyne Recreation Club, Cloyne Community Club, Eastern Star, Northbrook Community Association, and fund raising events by members of the Swimming Committee in Denbigh, Kaladar, Flinton, Northbrook, Cloyne, and Harlowe. In addition the children pay a lesson and bus fee.

The Swimming Committee are now selling stationery illustrated by local artists. They have also prepared "Bon Echo Cookbook" which will soon be available.

Madoc player leads jitney in Stirling

On Thursday, July 4th, the Madoc lawn bowlers visited Stirling for a "Friendly Jitney" and spent a very enjoyable evening. Madoc player on the leading team was Frank Palmer, and Mrs. Audrey Dafoe was on the second highest team.

On the home greens the members have had some keen games, and interesting projects are planned for the season.

The Club would welcome new members and anyone interested is invited to come and try the game--entrance on Davidson Street, or to get in touch with any member. A special welcome is also extended to vacationers. Bowling nights are on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:15 p.m.

A Canadian, Dr. Donald N. Bastian, has been elected as a new bishop for Canada by the 28th Free Methodist General Conference.

As you see it Peace Park thanks

This letter is to thank you as publisher of the various newspapers in our area for the coverage you provided of the 8th annual Peace Park Festival and Memorial Service at the Lester B. Pearson Peace Park over the weekend.

It is public service such as this that makes the peace park possible.

At the peace park we have nothing to buy or sell, but we have a message of peace and hope for the world.

Your co-operation in providing publicity for this is appreciated.

Sincerely,
ROY CADWELL,
Chairman,
Tweed.

NOTICE

Effective August 3rd, 1974 the hayloft will be open on Saturday night to guests and members of the 737 CLUB only. This club is a family entertainment club and has other events planned. Applications for membership are still available and may be obtained at the Saturday night Hayloft dances.

IN APPRECIATION

Having recently sold the newspaper portion of the business, I would like to extend appreciation to the advertisers, correspondents and the many readers of the Madoc Review for their support during the past three and one-half years.

I would also like to remind people of the area that the printing business will be carried on as usual for all your requirements in stationery, office supplies and wedding accessories. Maurice Goulah.

Here's the Answer

Save those round cardboard containers potato chips come in for a customized cookie jar. Simply paste foil or wrapping paper around the container and you have an attractive cookie jar that really keeps baked goods fresh.

For those water bed owners in a quandary over what to place on top of it in lieu of bedsheets, try a sleeping bag. It's comfortable, easy to fold and insulates you from the water's chill.

Sending out a lot of mail but don't want to wear out your tongue licking stamps? Take a clothes pin and wedge a piece of foam rubber in the open end. Then dip into water and apply to the stamp's back — no more tired tongues!

If you use a copper scouring pad to wipe down pots and pans before going into the dishwasher, toss the pad in too. Comes out fresh and clean for longer use.

Tearing your hair out over water stains on kitchen or bathroom faucets? Try scrubbing with an old toothbrush. It gets into even the tightest corners.

In the Kitchen

BAKED ONION CUSTARD

- 1/4 cup peanut oil
- 4 cups chopped onions
- 1 cup light cream
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- Fine dry bread crumbs

Heat peanut oil in a large skillet. Add onions and 1/4 cup light cream. Cook over low heat until onions are tender, about 15 minutes. Measure about 1/4 cup of onion mixture into each of nine 5-ounce custard cups. Beat eggs, remaining 3/4 cup light cream, salt and pepper until light. Pour an equal amount (about 2 1/2 tablespoons) over each cup of onions. Sprinkle with bread crumbs. Set custard in pan of hot water. Bake in 350-degree oven about 25 to 30 minutes or until set. Serve hot. Makes 9 servings.

Fix-It Tip

One power tool almost every homeowner usually acquires is a portable electric drill. He may never buy another power tool, even desire one, but the electric drill is just about a must.

Variable speed drills are quite common now so that it is easy to use your drill for such chores as driving screws with appropriate bits. If the drill strains and starts turning slowly or it twists in your hand, slow down. You're applying more pressure than the drill can handle.

If the drill gets hot, it doesn't have the power to handle the job and you are burning out the motor. Don't ever push your drill this far.

A miraculous escape

Madoc man walks from bridge collapse

SEVERAL COTTAGERS around the north end of Cordova (Deer) Lake, five miles north of Cordova Mine, were cut off by road last Friday when a 40-foot steel truss bridge fell into the Cordova River. The bridge collapsed about noon when a truck loaded with logs was passing across the one-lane span.

A Madoc man miraculously escaped injury when a bridge north of Marmora collapsed while he drove a truck over it. Ambrose W. Carroll, of 82 Elgin St., Madoc, was driving a truck load of logs south on the Hastings and Peterborough County boundary road just north of Cordova Mills.

The bridge apparently started to give way as he drove onto it, and he accelerated fast in hopes of getting to the other side.

An OPP officer at the scene told The Madoc Review that as the mid section of the structure fell into the Cordova River below, the end sections lifted and helped lift the end of the truck over the stream. It toppled into the ditch on the far side, spilling its load of logs, and damaging the vehicle.

Mr. Carroll, however, managed to walk away unhurt.

The truck is registered to Charles Murphy, 202 St. Lawrence St., Madoc.

The mishap stranded several cottagers around the north end of Cordova (Deer) Lake, five miles north of Cordova Mines. The road was the only one leading into the area.

The mishap occurred around Friday noon, and it wasn't until Sunday that a Bailey bridge brought in to replace the former structure, was completely erected, and it was safe for people to travel across the river by car or truck once again.

Since the bridge is located on the boundary line, both Madoc and Campbellford detachments of the Ontario Provincial Police were called, but the Campbellford officer investigated and made the official report.

A BAILEY BRIDGE was brought in and was erected over the weekend to enable people to get back and forth once again. It was built over the remains of the former structure.

Township mill rates drop

There was good news for Madoc Township residents as the township council brought down its 1974 budget this month. The public school supporters residential rate is down 1.73 mills and the public schools supporters commercial rate is down .48 mills.

The residential separate school supporters rate is down 3.65 mills and the separate school commercial supporters rate is down 2.61 mills.

The school rate this year, notes Mrs. Eva Brownson, clerk-treasurer, has increased this year, the board of education requisitioning $67,526.00 from the township this year, compared to $57,678 in 1973.

The county rate is lower due to a little lower requisition and a larger resource equalization grant for 1974.

Taxes will be due on September 30th, 1974, as another quarter of the school levy is due on that day. It will save the council from borrowing money at the current high rates of interest.

One of the players on the Madoc team in a match against Marmora last week seemed to be more interested in the camera than the game. Perhaps it was just as well - Madoc lost the minor softball contest by a score of 11 - 6.

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

A quiet, diffident boy, Marty, almost eight, needs love and reassurance.

Unhappy experiences, before he came into the care of the Children's Aid Society, have left him without confidence in himself. He should blossom in the warm, encouraging atmosphere of a family which he knows is his very own.

Marty is Anglo-Saxon in descent, good-looking and slightly built with lovely brown eyes, blonde wavy hair, fair skin and a dimple in his chin. He is in good health. A slight speech defect is gradually improving without therapy. He is not difficult to understand.

Going into Grade 2, Marty is at least average in ability. He tries hard to do his best in whatever he attempts. Pleasant, polite, well behaved, Marty is talkative with people he knows. He enjoys attention but does not seek it.

Like most small boys, Marty plays a lot with cars and trucks. He takes them apart and since he has a good deal of manual dexterity and understands how many things work, he also puts them together again. Marty loves to help his foster father fix things around the house. He is fond of skating and likes the water though he hasn't yet learned to swim.

Loveable young Marty needs a home where he will be the only child or the youngest by several years and where the mother and father will want to spend a great deal of time with their son.

To enquire about adopting Marty, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

Madoc male wins park watermelon eating contest

Linda Keogh, Tweed, was the winner of the best and most original display at the 8th Annual Peace Park Festival, for her exhibit of muscular dystrophy, complete with two live goats.

Winner of Hastings County's largest watermelon eating contest was Peter Veering, Madoc.

Two girls from the Kingston District Folk Art entertainers won the egg tossing contest with a thirty-foot throw and catching it without the egg being broken. They were Lindy Wilson and Christine Garthland.

Fanchon Gourd, a French speaking Canadian from Ottawa, was the winner of the attendance prize. All the winners received cash prizes. Linda Keogh returned hers to the park as her contribution to peace. Contestants came from all over, as far away as Germany and the southern United States.

UNUSUAL ENTRY

One of the most unusual entries at the Hastings dog show on the weekend was Lady, owned by Gary Mintz. As well as sporting a pipe, glasses and hat, Lady also likes to read the newspaper and balance pipes on her head.

KIWANIANS

KEEPING BUSY

Madoc Kiwanians are pretty busy fellows these days.

They are working hard at organizing a street dance featuring the "Family Brown" Saturday, July 27.

"It'll be fun for the whole family," they state.

The Kiwanis are also planning a Madoc Summerfest and have it scheduled for August 10.

Pleads guilty

A Madoc man pleaded guilty in Campbellford Provincial Court Friday to charges of failing to produce proof of insurance, having improper windshield wipers and having defective brake lights on his vehicle.

The court was told that Richard Jones, 172 Rollins St., was the owner of a truck stopped on June 11 for the offences.

Mr. Jones was fined a total of $20 and costs for his defective equipment but was given time to produce proof of insurance before a decision was handed down on the final charge.

Visitors at the home of Don and Madeline McKinnon a week ago Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Claridge, Michael and Lincoln, of Newmarket; Michael staying for two weeks. On Wednesday Mrs. Irvine Ambler of Paris, Ontario, and Miss Winona Palmer of Peterborough, and this past Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harrison, Ralph and Gary, of Oshawa were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Melbourne from Ottawa spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Melbourne.

Misses Catherine Burnside, Roberta Sager and Janice Rollins returned early Friday from a marvellous western trip taking the northern route through the mountains going to Vancouver and returning by way of the Kicking Horse Pass.

One of our local artists, namely, Vera Burnside and her sister Mrs. Clarke (Ruth) are continuing their skills with instruction each Saturday from Mr. Poul Throne of Kaladar, on locations in various areas.

On route to other points, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carkner called overnight on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Moorcroft. Also, on Wednesday Mr. Gregory Carkner stopped in at Ross and Marilyn's on his return trip to Toronto from a business operation at Bancroft.

David and Wanda Franks and family are leaving this weekend on a western trip.

Busy farmers have been "making hay while the sun shines" (and the dust flies). Possibly if our city - er - friends, also had to work seventeen hours a day (for about half the net income) they could have less time for many complaints, e.g. the nuisance of tractors on roads. Which party likes it the least? Also, if Alex Mullin's "scheme for relief milking" is available more dairy farmers might have holiday time, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ketcheson along with a group of Hastings and P. E. Counties couples flew from Toronto on the 20th for a two-week tour of awe-inspiring Britain and to visit farms there.

Miss Agnes Tobin of Toronto has been spending a few days at home with Mr. and Mrs. Frances Tobin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doughty, Bertha, and Bob Moorcroft were Sunday visitors at Valley Croft.

Bannockburn banter

Mrs. Grace Nicol, Belleville called in town Saturday afternoon, while enroute to her cottage at Weslemkoon Lake. She was accompanied by Mrs. Cockrem, Victoria, B.C. and Mr. and Mrs. John Shannon, Ottawa.

Rev. and Mrs. Dillabough and family left Monday morning for a motor trip to Washington where they will be guests of the latter's parents.

Miss Bernice Parks, Belleville spent a couple of days last week with Mrs. Donly.

Mr. Brian Wilson who was a guest in town has returned to the Air Base in Florida and expects to be going to Spain in the near future.

Mrs. M. Simpson and John, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simpson and family and other relatives spent Sunday at Deer Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris spent Wednesday with friends in Peterborough.

Mrs. Thos. Robinson, Oshawa spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Thos. Sandford.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer attended the Rump-Ackerman wedding in Belleville on Saturday.

Queensboro

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Rourke are spending a few weeks travelling (by bus) through the western Provinces.

Mr. and Mrs. Leed Kapusta, Toronto and Mr. Will Rollins, Peterborough spent the weekend with Mr. Bob Thompson.

Mrs. Will Holmes is a patient in Belleville General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bosley spent Sunday in Camden East at the home of Mr. Wilfred Corkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Keene, Remington visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holmes and Mrs. Ash, Sunday evening last.

In days of yore...

This morning three men and two women held up a man at Hoard's Station taking from him several hundreds of dollars. The robbers made their escape in two cars, travelling together as far as Stirling, when they separated, one car containing a man and a woman started towards Belleville, while the other left towards Madoc, containing two men and a lady. The police at Madoc have been notified to keep a look out for this car. It is a Ford car with only a license number on the back, no. 68950. At the time of going to press no trace of the thieves have been found.

A look at the Belleville Markets showed new potatoes crowded the market and prices declined to $.40 per peck, which is lower than old potatoes were some weeks ago. Raspberries have not varied in price since Thursday. They brought 12.5 cents for blue, 17.5 for red. Huckleberries went at $.25 a quart. Cherries brought $.25 for three boxes. Eggs were selling a little easier at 26 to 27 cents per dozen. Apples were down to $.40 per peck. Black currants sold at 12.5 per box. Hogs are steady at $9.25 per cwt. live weight. There has been no decline from last week. Beans sold at 5 cents per box, cabbage 5 and 10 cents per head, onions 5 cents. Fowl went at $1.35 each upward. Hay sold at $12. per ton.

On Wednesday of last week, Mr. John Henry Jr., while engaged in trimming trees at Mr. Wm. Kilpatrick's, fell out of a tree to the ground, a distance of about twenty feet, putting his wrist out of joint, hurting his eye and sustaining other minor injuries.

On Monday, July 21st, at 2 o'clock in the Methodist parsonage, Madoc, a quiet wedding was solemnized when Allegra Mary, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, of Bancroft, was married to James Warren Hickey of Marmora. The young couple were attended by Mrs. Martin Goodkey, of New Toronto, sister of the bride, and Mrs. George Hill, of Madoc, sister of the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. H. Foster. After the ceremony the young couple left for Toronto and other points west.

The Girl Guides' Camp broke up on Saturday last after ten days of outdoor sport. On Friday night a great many of the campers were present at the camp "stunt" night and all claim to have spent an evening of much enjoyment. While the girls were at camp they both worked and played on schedule and from the sunburnt happy faces which reluctantly left camp behind the girls' session is as much a success if not greater than the boys.

Deloro won their ninth straight win, when they defeated the local boys on the local diamond, on Wednesday of last week.

Only part of the Madoc regular team was present due to other attractions, and as a result Madoc put up a very poor brand of ball. Deloro secured a lead early in the game and had everything their own way from start to finish. Madoc entered the league this year with practically a junior team, in order to save money and to build up a real home team, they have played only local players and have not gone in debt, as usual. The brand of ball played was not up to that of other years, but it was played by our boys and they deserve credit for what they have done.

The death occurred in Belleville General Hospital of Mrs. Emily Bateman Cranston on Sunday evening after two weeks' illness of a painful nature, but which she bore with fortitude. Mrs. Cranston, whose home was near Stirling, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bateman, of Madoc, who survive her. She was born not far from Madoc and spent her life there until the time of her marriage to Mr. Cranston. She was a member of the Methodist Church and was interested in a number of church activities and during the war rendered splendid service in connection with women's organizations. She leaves, besides her mourning husband and parents, two children, one son aged 12 years, and a daughter aged 10 years. Several sisters and brothers mourn her passing. Mrs. Cranston was well and favourably known and her death is deplored by a wide circle of friends.

Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, 55, Canada's Labor Minister for almost eight years, died unexpectedly early Tuesday. Mr. Mitchell, Minister of Labor longer than any holder of that portfolio in Commonwealth history, died at 2:25 a.m. little more than two days after entering hospital. His death struck the capital with sudden shock, as only on last Wednesday and Thursday he was an honorary pallbearer at the funeral services of the Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

A badly bruised leg, caused when he became entangled in his chute ropes during a jump held in Bancroft last Wednesday, did not deter Charlie Murphy, demon parachute jumper, from thrilling a new record crowd at Crystal Beach, Moira Lake, on Sunday with another spectacular leap from an aircraft. Murphy used an umbrella but it was disintegrated by the slip-stream a second after he leaped. He jumped from 3,500 feet and opened his chute at 500, landing safely in the water.

A resident of Madoc for the past three years, Daniel McCrimmon died at his home on Sunday after an illness of two year's duration. He was born in Belleville 81 years ago and during his early life he followed the occupation of mining in the Cobalt district, later going to Malone, where he was engaged in farming. He retired some years ago and moved to Madoc to live in retirement. He was a member of St. Peter's Presbyterian Church and was held in high regard in the community. Surviving are his wife, the former Eliza Richardson, and one son, George McCrimmon, at home.

The marriage was solemnized on Saturday, July 15, at Bridge Street United Church, Belleville, of Winnifred Norah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stirling, of Belleville, and Raymond McFarlane Gunsolus, of Belleville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Gunsolus, of Madoc Township.

Condition of field crops in Hastings County at July 1st range from excellent to poor, a report by the Ontario Department of Agriculture shows. For the most part the crops were below normal. Expressed below as a percent of normal are the field crops grown in Hastings: fall wheat, 95; spring wheat, 98; oats, 104; barley, 103; rye, 97; mixed grains, 105; peas, 80; alfalfa, 80; hay and clover, 75; pastures, 85; buckwheat, 100; potatoes, 103; roots, 96; fodder corn, 95; corn for husking, 100.

Arnold V. Gaebel, of Madoc Township, was elected District Deputy Grand Master of the Masonic Order for Prince Edward District, at the recent convocation held in Toronto. Most Worshipful Brother Gaebel is well-known in fraternal circles and is a Past Master of Madoc A.F. & A.M., as well as Past First Principal of Madoc Chapter, R.A.M. The new D.D.G.M. succeeds M. Wor. Bro. Carl Crosby, of Belleville. Mr. E.T. Naylor, of Madoc, was named Grand Steward. He is also associated with Madoc A.F. & A.M. and Madoc Chapter, R.A.M.

Following a sudden illness Alex Allen Love, Madoc, 18-months-old son of Nicholas and Dora Love, died in Belleville General Hospital on Sunday evening. He was born in Madoc and surviving besides the parents is one brother, William, aged five, at home.

The following is the standing of the Field Crop Competition held under the auspices of the Madoc Agricultural Society for oats: Ward Holland 86; Wm. J. Stewart 85; Ed Sexsmith 84 1-2; Fred Irwin 84; Gordon McCoy 83 1-2; Allan C. Thompson 83; Jas. A. Miller 82 1-2; Philo Harris 82; Robt. A. Woods 81; Hark Rollins 71 1-2; Harry Stout 71; Allan Ketcheson 70 1-2; Leslie Blakely 68; Earl Burnside 67; Maurice Reynolds 66; Orie Reid 64.

The Ellins Construction Company, Toronto, are busy preparing to start work immediately on the completion of the highway through the village of Bannockburn.

Bearded Paul Conroy, Toronto, passed through Madoc yesterday on a hiking tour which started in Toronto, July 1st. Since that time he has passed through Chicago, Milwaukee, and the Blind River - Sudbury area on foot. He plans finishing his walking tour in Halifax.

Following an illness of three months, Albert Victor Empey, retired farmer of Madoc Township, died in the Belleville General Hospital on Monday. He was born in Madoc Township, 72 years ago, being the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John A. Empey. He took up farming at an early age and on retirement moved into Madoc Village and in both communities was well known and highly regarded. During his lifetime he took an active interest in the work of the Orange Lodge and was made an honorary member of the L.O.L. No. 517, of Eldorado. He was also Preceptor of the Hastings County Black Chapter and member of Trinity United Church in Madoc and at one time served on the Board of Stewards. He is survived by his wife, the former Martha A. Lough, and two sisters, Mrs. I. (Blanche) Blakely, of Eldorado and Mrs. H. (Hattie) Miller, of Wheaton, Ill. The funeral was held on Wednesday, August 5th, from the Mackenzie Funeral Home to Trinity United Church where service was conducted by Rev. J.F. Lane assisted by Mr. J. McMurray. The profusion of beautiful floral tributes and the church being filled to capacity by the many relatives and friends in attendance testified to the very high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. L.O.L. graveside services were under the direction of Lodge 517, Eldorado, with the service conducted by Thomas Lloyd, Master of the Lodge, and Percy Blakely as Chaplain. Members of the Lodge formed a Guard of Honour at the Funeral Home, Church and Cemetery. Interment took place in Eldorado Cemetery. Bearers were: Bert Hagerman, Albert Nickle, Clifford Blakely, George Palmer, Fred Pack, Lorne Donly.

Mr. Bill Armstrong and son, Robert, had a nice catch of fish at Moira Lake over the weekend. The catch included four Pickerel and a Bass with the largest Pickerel weighing six pounds and another five pounds.

The draw sponsored by the United Steelworkers' Union at Deloro, was held at the Union's Annual picnic at Crystal Beach on Monday. Holders of the winning tickets were Art Peters, of Deloro, who won a spinning rod and reel, and John Gray, of Marmora, who won an electric tea kettle.

Central Smith Ice Cream available at the Madoc Frigid Lockers, was selling at the following prices: pints, $.25; quarts, $.40; 1/2 gallon, $.79; gallon, $1.49; 2 1/2 gallon, $3.75.

At Kincaid Bros. Red and White Store Blade Roast (blade removed) was selling at 45 cents a pound. Rib Roast was selling at 49 cents a pound. A pound of weiners was selling at 35 cents.

Car damaged in accident

Roy Vicente, Willowdale, was the driver involved in a single car accident on the Cooper-Bannockburn road early Sunday evening. Police report that Vicente lost control of the car which left the road, rolling onto its top in a swamp. No injuries were reported in the mishap.

Surprise 40th party honors Stevenson's

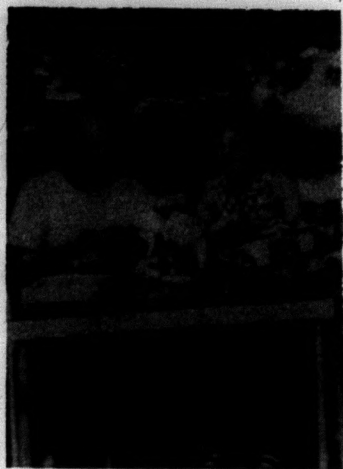

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Stevenson of Peterborough open their "ruby" gifts at their surprise 40th wedding anniversary party which took place at the Stevenson family annual reunion, held recently at O'Hara Mills.

Harold and Oda (Devolin) were married in Madoc on May 28th, 1934. He is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Milford Stevenson, and Oda is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Devolin. They have one son, Wayne, living in Scarborough; and he and his wife, Carol, have four daughters - Laurie, Linda, Lorraine and Lois, all at home.

This year's reunion secretary, Mrs. Verna Gazley, Scarborough, welcomed the lovely gathering of relatives and friends, and called on Mr. Roy Stevenson, Belleville, to read the "Year's Family News." Then, after extending best wishes to those having a birthday or anniversary in June, Roy congratulated and proposed a toast to Oda and Harold, the special celebrants of the day. A ribboned knife was used to cut the cake which was made and ruby-decorated for the occasion. After opening their gifts beneath the decorated evergreen boughs, the couple expressed their appreciation and thought O'Hara Mills might be a good place to celebrate their fiftieth, to which all plan to attend.

The secretary then read the minutes of the previous year and the business at hand was dealt with. It was agreed to hold next year's reunion at the same place, on August 9. A motion unanimously carried that Mrs. Florence Reid, Belleville, would bring the berry as always. Mr. Floyd Reid, and Mrs. Edna Dargan of Smith Falls will provide mouth-organ duets.

The eldest member attending this year was Mr. Clarence Copp of Norwood, while the youngest member was Miss Lois Stevenson of Scarborough. Mr. Roy Cooper, Wateloo, Ont., was elected secretary for 1975. Everyone would like to have more descendants of the late Mary and Joseph Stevenson Family attend.

Tudor and Cashel

The Tudor & Cashel Council met on June 7, 1974 with all members present.

Davidson - Robbins - that the minutes of the previous meeting be adopted as read.

Coun. Davidson gave notice that at this session of Council he would introduce a By-Law for the purpose of setting the rates to be imposed on taxable property and business in the Twps. of Tudor & Cashel in 1974.

Robbins - Davidson - that the following accounts be paid, Madoc Review $52.74; Municipal World $3.39; B. Baker mileage $48.70, tel. $15.91, postage $80.00; Road Voucher No. 5 $3,692.62.

Bruce - Robbins - that By-Law No. 3-74 is in conformity with the proposed Official Plan of the County of Hastings.

Bruce - Davidson - that the Ministry of Transportation and Communications be petitioned for a supplementary allotment of subsidy in the amount of $1,500.00 for maintenance on roads.

Davidson - Bruce - that the blanket position bond be increased to $10,000.00 and forgery protection added for the amount of $10,000.00 and $10,000.00 be added to the equipment depot insurance.

Davidson - Bruce - that John Milley be allowed to place fill on the road allowance in front of his building providing the ditches are left open and the slope is rip-raped and that Mr. Milley give the municipality a letter stating that he understands the property will remain in the hands of the municipality. This motion was objected to by Arnold Burkitt. Carried - Ross Sprackett.

Davidson - Robbins that council approve the Land Separations of Dave McMurtry being part of Lot 14 Con. 17 Tudor and the separation of Fred Hatchard being part of Lot 27 Con. 2 Cashel.

Council entered By-Laws with Reeve Sprackett in the chair. A By-Law for the purpose of setting the rates to be imposed on taxable property and business in the year 1974, was read a first, second and third time, signed, sealed and numbered By-Law 4-74.

Council resumed general business.

Davidson - Bruce - that Council adjourn to meet June 21st at 8 p.m.

The Tudor & Cashel Council met on June 21, 1974 at 8 p.m. with all members present except Coun. Robbins.

Bruce - Davidson - that the minutes of the previous meeting be adopted as read.

Burkitt - Bruce - that the land separation of Earl and Thelma Bell being part of Lot 15 Con. 10 Tudor and the separation of Gerald Trumble being part of Lot 31 Con. 1 Cashel be approved.

MADOC TRAP NEWS

The Madoc Hunters and Anglers trap range has been very active this year with some very good scores. The results for July 21, 1974 were as follows:

16 yds. - Doug Clarke - 25 birds out of 25
16 yds. - Joe Quinn - 25 birds out of 25
16 yds. - Mike Quinn - 24 birds out of 25
16 yds. - John Mitchell - 23 birds out of 25
16 yds. - L. Donley - 23 birds out of 25
16 yds. - M. Boyle - 22 birds out of 25
24 yds. - Joe Quinn - 22 birds out of 25
24 yds. - John Mitchell - 21 birds out of 25
24 yds. - D. Clarke - 21 birds out of 25

Doubles

Joe Quinn - 24 out of 30 birds
Doug Clarke - 25 out of 30 birds
L. Donley - 22 out of 30 birds
M. Boyle - 22 out of 30 birds
Bill Haggerty - 21 out of 30 birds

Four Americans were injured when the car in which they were passengers rolled over into the median on Highway 401. The accident took place near the Smithfield underpass.

Opening new unit

The Hastings and Prince Edward Counties Health Unit and the Hastings County Board of Education have announced the opening of a new unit.

The building is located at 208 Bridge Street, East, Belleville. A further announcement will be made as to when the Health Unit will be moving to the new quarters.

Back in 1957 Verne Olson of Calgary Alberta bought a Lawn-Boy power mower, model 5100. He didn't know it then, of course, but it would go on working faithfully for more than 16 years. That's what you get when you buy a Lawn-Boy—years of trouble-free use!

Compare our lowest priced Lawn-Boy power mower with other so-called "bargain" mowers. The Lawn-Boy has a lightweight magnesium alloy housing that completely eliminates rust. A 2 cycle engine that uses pre-mixed oil and gas and does away with engine burn-outs on terraces and steep slopes. A rugged, reinforced blade and staggered wheels for a smooth level cut. And the largest blower in the industry for quiet operation. Some models even offer Solid State CD ignition which means faster starts, no ignition points to wear out and up to 4 times longer plug life.

As the years roll by your Lawn-Boy will keep rolling with them. Choose from the budget priced 19" model 5023, the 19" or 21" push or self-propelled Deluxe or Solid State models. 2 commercial models, rider or a cordless electric. In all, there are 15 different great Lawn-Boys. See your dealer now while his selection is still complete.

Remember a Lawn-Boy may cost you a little bit more, but it lasts a lot longer to boot. So in the long run, it's well worth the investment. Right Mr. Olson?

Right!!!

Popular teacher dies

A school teacher in Centre Hastings for many years and at Madoc for the past five years, Mrs. Catherine P. Lahey died at St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough, July 16, 1974. She was 51.

Mrs. Lahey had taught up to the end of the last school term.

Born in Westport, north of Kingston, she was the wife of James Lahey and was a member of the Sacred Heart of Mary Church. Before coming to Madoc she had taught at Huntingdon, Ivanhoe and Harold.

Aside from her husband, James Lahey, she is survived by children, Mrs. Cathie Oliver, Anne, Teresa, Marg Maureen, Michelle and Jamie, and one grandson, Jason Oliver.

Mrs. Lahey is also survived by sisters, Mary, Margaret, Teresa and Frances and by brothers, Tom, Joseph, Al, and John.

Purina-ettes open P.W.S.U. playdowns

Before the paper is issued this week the Purina-ettes will have played their first game of the first series in the P. W. S. U. playdowns against the Belleville Yardmen. They travelled to Belleville Tuesday night for a 6:30 p.m. game.

The second game will be played in Madoc, Saturday, July 27th, at 8:30 p.m.

This series is 2 out of 3 games. If it is necessary for a third game it will be played Sunday, July 28th, either in Belleville or Madoc, depending on who wins the flip.

During the season the Purina-ettes have faced the Yardmen, winning 2 out of 3 games. The first game was a 6 to 3 score; second game 8 to 5 score for the Purina-ettes. The Yardmen defeated the Purina-ettes, in Madoc, 4 to 3.

The winner of this series will play the winners of Lakefield and Newmarket series and the losers will play the losing team of the same series.

In these playdowns the teams are able to sign extra players. The Yardmen have several players off other teams in Belleville for their team in the playdowns. The Purina-ettes signed Carol Holland from Foxboro; also the age limit is open so Sherri Twiddy will be able to participate.

Mrs. Lahey rested at the MacKenzie Funeral Home, Madoc. The funeral was held July 19th from the MacKenzie Funeral Home to Sacred Heart of Mary Church for Requiem Mass at 10:00 a.m. Interment, Sacred Heart of Mary Cemetery.

Flower Bearers were: Ed Devoland, Jeffery Broad, Paul Miller, Jim Carswell, Steven Reynolds, and Kim Lee.

Pallbearers were: Cliv Kingston, Don Dillabough, Mac Van Dyk, Harry Dennis Jr., Albert Gorean, and Charles Gordon.

Also assisting in celebrating the mass with Rev. Murphy were: Rev. W.P. Healey of Erinsville, Monsignor W.J. Lynett of Trenton, Rev. W.V. Hamilton of Picton, Rev. J.P. Carty of Flinton, Rev. L.P. Byrne of Cardinal, and Rev. J.H. MacGilluray of Gananoque.

Here's corrected percentages

Harris-Irwin that the lowest bid of Dominion Road Machinery (Champion) for $46,759.00 with a Cummins Motor if possible, to be delivered Dec. 20, 1974, subject to approval of Ministry of Transportation and Communications. Cd. Bailey-Wannamaker - that we endorse the Twp. of Pittsburgh's resolution to raise the penalty of unpaid taxes to 2% per month instead of 1% per month.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Catherine Lahey wish to thank the many friends and relatives for the kindnesses and favours that they showed during our recent loss. Many thanks for the comforting words and thoughts by friends; the service by Rev. P. Murphy, and the lunch served by the CWL. Thank you.

JAMES LAHEY AND FAMILY

I wish, through the medium of the Review, to thank all my friends, neighbours and relatives for the many cards, gifts, flowers, calls and messages sent me during my long stay in hospital. I would like to say special thanks to the different organizations for cards and flowers. I wish to thank my doctors, Dr. Douglas, Dr. Derry and Dr. Dosaj; also my nurses for their kindnesses. I wish to thank my minister for his faithfulness in visiting me through the weeks, and Capt. Thompson for his cheery calls, and all others for their prayers and good wishes on my behalf. Many thanks to all.

Bill Smiley I know when I've got a good thing!

By Bill Smiley

Last week, faithful readers, if there are any left, followed the enthralling, if not appalling, account of my meteoric career in the financial world.

I had suggested that I felt I was being caught in the middle of a great financial squeeze when someone offered to buy me Peel-Elder stock at $13 a share. I smelled something peculiar and promised I'd try to get to the bottom of it.

I haven't, but I hate to part with those twenty-five shares of Peel-Elder. I've had them as long as I've had my wife.

They are all that's left of my second and final savage attack on the stock market. My first was rather deflating, as I mentioned last week.

But the second time around, I didn't take any chances. It was only when a trusted stock-broker told me Eldridge Mines was going to be the hottest thing on the market, that I carefully bought 1,000 shares. They cost me $330. The broker was a former prisoner-of-war, so could be trusted implicitly.

The stock held firm, went up about five cents a share in a week, and this time there actually was a producing gold mine. I reckoned I was in Biscuit City, as we say in these parts.

What nobody told me was that there was more money in gravel than there was in gold, in those days, and for many years to come. I should have bought a gravel pit.

I have previously related how that 1,000 shares of Eldridge has shrunk to 25 shares of Peel-Elder, so I won't bore you. But I did learn one of the inevitable.

or so it seems to me, laws of stocks.

Every time a company gets bigger, I have fewer stocks. Eldridge expanded, became known as Elder, with a lot of new capital and great prospects in the offing. I was told that for my 1,000 shares of that cheap little old Eldridge, I would get 120 shares of this tremendous new Elder.

There was no money in gold mining, apparently, so Elder became Peel-Elder and got heavily into real estate. Assets increased, profits rose, and Smiley wound up with something like 12½ shares of Peel-Elder.

There was one halcyon period when Peel-Elder went up to more than $20 a share. I was tempted to sell. I could have come out only about $100 in the hole, after twenty years. Not bad, that. But I hung in there.

Then, about a year ago, Peel-Elder, with a flamboyant burst of something or other, informed me that, as a loyal shareholder, I could have two shares for every one I had.

I don't remember the details. I think you had to be a white Anglican with some teeth missing, a bad back, and no more or less than two children, neither of them self-supporting. Something like that. Anyway, I qualified.

That's how I wound up with 25 shares of Peel-Elder. And now along comes an impressive brochure from an outfit called Hambro Canada Limited with an offer to buy at $13 a share. In February and March I could have sold for about $14.

Hambro is a Canadian affiliate of Hambros Ltd., a London, England, based international merchant banker, with a good many fingers in a good many pies.

Hambro Canada Ltd.

already owns almost 50 per cent of Peel-Elder, but wants to buy the rest.

Most of the directors and officers of Peel-Elder are also directors or officers of Hambro Canada Limited.

Are you confused? Me too. It's pretty obviously a takeover of an established Canadian corporation by a British-based corporation, with somebody probably about to make a pot of bullion in the process.

And here's something else that puzzles me. After thirty-odd years of watching Peel-Elder grow from a sickly little gold mine into a husky corporation, and watching my share of the cake diminish from a small wedge to a crumb, I suddenly get two whacking great dividend cheques from Peel-Elder. One for $294, the other for $150.

Wouldn't you be wary when you'd not received a dividend for three decades and suddenly got two in one mail?

The offer to buy me out, from Hambro Canada Ltd., states rather sternly that the offer will expire July 23rd.

If I accept the offer, I will receive $325. The stock cost me $330 thirty years ago. And Trudeau would probably want a capital gains tax if I sold.

Well, there we are. I started out in a quandary and I've ended in a quagmire. I wish I'd put that original $330 into a couple of beach lots which would now be worth $20,000. I wish I'd gone into pig farming. I wish I could win a sweepstake.

However, that's the way it goes with us chaps who play the market. We accept the fact that we're compulsive gamblers and take our losses with a stiff lower lip.

But I won't sell that stock. Let them fight it out, the corporate bums.

Hastings Madoc Senior Citizens Club hears variety of music

(Submitted by Josephine McCoy)

Citizens Club of Madoc and District No. 473 held their meeting in the parlour of Trinity United Church.

The president Mrs. Broadworth was in the chair and read a poem composed by Mrs. Johns' mother, followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer and singing the Maple Leaf. The members were glad to have Mrs. Johns with us and the minutes of the last two meetings were read and business dealt with. The grant through the New Horizons project has been received. Several members are celebrating birthdays this month and Mrs. Blackburn read a poem "Birthdays".

A comment on the Zone picnic held in Oshawa on July 3rd. A bus load of 48 attended from Madoc; total attendance about 1800. It was a wet, rainy morning so the Oshawa club had to make a change of plans and have the picnic in the arena. The programme was much enjoyed; the Oshawa Pipe Band, Baton Twirlers, Magicians and the Gad-about chair from Kingston in their colourful old time costumes. The members visited Bowmanville Zoo also.

A good representation from the Senior Citizens turned out for the turning of the sod ceremonies for the 21-unit housing project to begin soon.

To proceed with the program of July 17th for which Mrs. Mary Moorcroft was in charge. This was by the grandchildren of the Senior Citizens. Miss Barbara Armstrong, granddaughter of Mrs. Pearl Blakely, played two piano selections - "The Sting" and "I've Got a Mansion in the Skies".

Ogle Devolin's grandchildren, Cheryl and Tammy Bateman, accompanied by Linda McBeath on guitar, sang "Don't it Make You Want to Go Home" and "500 Miles".

Mrs. Hilda Declair's granddaughter, Lisa Devolin, and Doreen and Deanne Campbell sang "Enjoy Yourself" and "I'm Too Young".

Granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forbes, Jo-Anne Demarsh, played "Amazing Grace" and "Little Brown Jug" on the piano accordion.

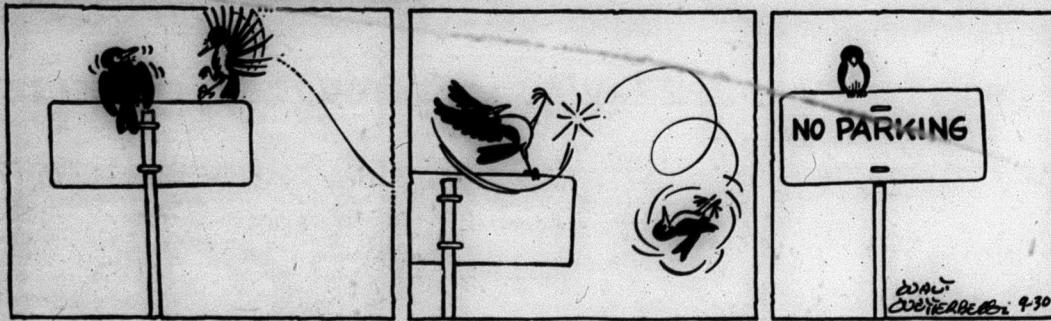

The grandmothers not wanting to be outdone sang a quartet. Pearl Blakely, Mary Moorcroft, Mary Whiteman, and Mrs. Donley. Margaret Fox and Mary Moorcroft each gave a reading. Mr. Bandy and Mrs. Donley played a mouth organ and piano duet.

Hostesses for the next meeting are Frances Cassidy, Lena Carman, Eileen Chambers, Lorraine Connor, Hilda De Clair, and Margaret Derry.

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

Make cafe curtains for the sun porch from woven gauze diapers (20x40-inch). Dye a dozen each of these red, yellow and blue or whatever color you favor. Sew together lengthwise using flat seams and alternating colors. Hem. Alternating the colors camouflages the many seams.

You can clean dolls made of a life-like soft plastic. They often collect a gummy sort of dirt. Use a soft toothbrush and a good household cleanser. Rinse with clean damp sponge and dry thoroughly.

Macrame knotting is so popular but the long strands of thread keep knotting as one works. To avoid this measure off the required length, start about 12 inches from the working end. Wind thread around three fingers until you get to the end. Make two or three turns with a twist tie around this small skein. The thread will pull out easily from the center.

Glasses may smell of paint if you put them on recently painted shelves. Remove the odor by soaking glasses in lukewarm water and baking soda.

MUSHROOM APPETIZER PIE

Pastry for 1 double crust 9-inch pie

- 1/2 pound sliced bacon, cooked and crumbled
1 tablespoon freeze-dried or frozen snipped chives
2 cans (6 or 8 ounces each) sliced mushrooms, drained
4 eggs, slightly beaten
2 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon chopped parsley

Roll all pastry to fit 12-inch pizza pan. Sprinkle bacon and chives over crust. Arrange drained mushroom slices in overlapping spiral pattern from center of crust to outer edge. Combine remaining ingredients. Pour over mushrooms; bake in 375-degree oven 35 to 40 minutes or until knife inserted 1-inch from edge comes out clean. Makes 16 servings

Fix-It Tip

Calking compound is substance not unlike putty. It is more pliable than putty however and it is used to seal cracks and joints. While calking lasts a long time, it should be checked now and then and replaced in spots where it has dried out or shrunk and a gap is once more open.

Apply calking around window and door frames, between window still and siding, between siding and vertical corner boards, between the siding and the top of the foundation, between steps and porch, doorsill and doorstep, between chimney and roof.

Fill every joint you can find anywhere in your house that might be exposed to the weather.

Canned Tuna ...

Shoppers often ask why is one brand of canned tuna more expensive than another? The two most important reasons are pack style (i.e. solid, chunk, flaked) and species of tuna. Also, there's the packing methods -- oil or water packed. The location of the tuna processing plant may have a bearing on price, too.

A look at the label will tell you whether the meat inside the can is white (the Albacore species) or light (usually Skipjack, a softer more fully-flavored meat) or Bonito (darker and less costly.)

The relative price of various forms and types of tuna generally stays the same. However, variations in the size of the catch of a species do affect the supply and thus the price.

Before deciding which price to pay, one must consider personal taste preferences and whether eye appeal is important. The nutritional value of solid tuna is comparable regardless of species or color.

Rollins brings $2,000 grant

The provincial government has come through with its share of the cost of the Madoc Swimming Pool Instruction (Madoc) Project.

Clarke T. Rollins, MPP, Hastings, presented a cheque for $2,000, towards the $4,000 overall cost, in a special ceremony. He presented it to Mrs. Mary Pigden, who accepted it on behalf of the project. The project, located on Russell Street, enables children of the area to swim for recreation, and to receive swimming instruction.

Playground activities, for four to 15-year-olds, are being introduced.

Some 70 children are currently enrolled in the program, and three instructors are on duty.

The co-sponsors are the Madoc Recreation Committee and the Youth in Action.

Mine employees "off sick"

Marmoraton Mining Company and United Steel Workers of America Local 4854 officials declined comment today on the "booking off sick" of the 12 midnight to 8 a.m. shift of employees last Sunday.

It is unofficially reported that the men are protesting the reinstatement this week of the drop out schedule on 8 a.m. to 4p.m. and 12 midnight to 8 a.m. shifts in the pit operation.

Started five years ago as a means of getting more production, employees were told then the schedule would run for two years, but instead was in force for four years. It was dropped about a year ago when it was announced the mine would be closing in to three years.

The drop out schedule meant that an employee might work one or two or three shifts, have a day off, and then work the remaining shifts of that week. It also meant that some employees started their work week at midnight Sunday night, or had to work Saturday.

High grass obstructs views, causes mishap

High grass obstructing the view of two drivers was given as the cause of a two car accident on a private road in Belmont Township, Sunday afternoon.

The Campbellford detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police reported that vehicles driven by Douglas Burton, Bridge St., Belleville and Carey Wood, William St., Havelock, had collided on a corner.

Northern road to get gov't aid

Clarke T. Rollins informed the Madoc Review that he has been advised by The Honourable John R. Rhodes, Minister of Transportation and Communications that he has designated the road from the hamlet of Queensborough in the Township of Elzevir and Grimsthorpe, northerly to Hastings County Road Number 12, in the Township of Madoc, as a Development Road for construction.

The Townships will be contacted in the near future to enter into a Development Road Agreement and to discuss the standard of improvement with the Councils of both Townships.

Receives diploma

Deborah Mary Jane Erler of St. Dennis Drive, Don Mills, Ontario received her diploma in Early Childhood Education recently at Spring convocation ceremonies at Ryerson Polytechnical Institute in Toronto, Canada. Mrs. Erler, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Donald Wannamaker of R.R. #1, Eldorado, Ontario, was one of more than 1,400 graduates who received degrees, diplomas and certificates during three days of ceremonies. A total of 304 degrees were awarded at the Institute's largest degree-granting convocation since it was empowered by the Ontario Government in October, 1971, to grant Bachelor of Technology and Bachelor of Applied Arts Degrees. Since it was established in 1948, Ryerson has graduated approximately 16,000 students, many of whom hold important positions in the arts and in professional, business and industrial fields in Canada, the United States and overseas.

Despite a threatening rain storm, the Madoc Kiwanis Street Dance, held Saturday night past, was again a big success.

People crowded Durham St. S. to try their luck at bingo, betting and skill games and to enjoy the entertainment and refreshments.

The biggest attraction of the street dance was the superb entertainment by "The Family Brown". Well-known for their television show, Country Way (seen Wednesdays at 7:30, Channel 6), the "Family Brown" kept the crowd laughing, cheering, clapping and dancing 'til 1:00 a.m. The group, consisting of 6 (2 girls, four men), sang many songs including their hit songs, "R.R. #2", "Family Love", "Yes, Jesus Loves Me" and "The Feelings Too Strong".

The street dance drew people, not only from the Madoc area, but from Belleville, Stirling, Tweed, Marmora, and north of Madoc.

THIS 1914 REEVES Steam Traction Engine, owned and restored by Frank Owens of Newcastle, Ont., will be on display and in operation along with 13 other antique steam engines at the Orono Steam and Antique Show August 3, 4 and 5.

Antique machinery display

A group of antique and steam buffs will gather at Orono August 3, 4 and 5, to display and operate many various types of antique machinery.

The most spectacular and impressive of these will be the huge steam traction engines used extensively in Western Canada in the late 1800's. Fourteen of these unique steam engines will be competing in a variety of tests of skill and power.

A large contingent of antique cars, tractors and hit and miss gas engines will be on display. Old time saw and shingle mills and threshing machines will be operating to demonstrate how the millwrights and farmers in rural Ontario went about their work at the turn of the century. A saw mill manufactured in 1890 by the Drake Manufacturing Company of Belleville will also be in operation.

Early Ontario home life will be portrayed through demonstrations of spinning, weaving and other hand crafts. The Orono show is being organized by the Eastern Ontario Steam and Antique Association.

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

Donald looks wistful and no wonder. In his eight years, this young lad has suffered rejection more than once, so he must often wonder, when he meets people, what their attitude will be. Because Donald really wants to belong to a family, he is enthusiastic about the idea of adoption. But he is anxious too. Will any people want me? And if they do, will they keep on wanting me? For Donald's sake let us hope for warmly affirmative answers to both questions very soon.

Donald is a pleasant, friendly boy doing well in school. He speaks clearly, expresses himself well and is a good reader. He is not so good at writing and drawing though he is improving. His teacher says he has good potential.

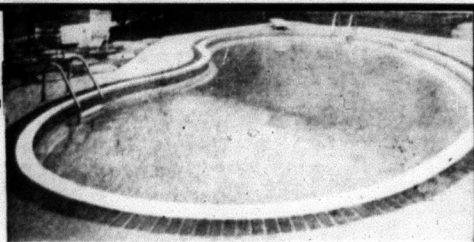

Anglo-Saxon in descent, Donald is small in stature with blue eyes, light brown hair and fair skin. His smile shows deep dimples. He wears glasses for near-sightedness. Donald is strong and healthy, a recently discovered heart murmur having been diagnosed as not significant.

To inquire about adopting Donald, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

Announce income supplement

Richard N. Quesnel, administrator, of the Campbellford Memorial Hospital, has announced that all hospital staff will receive an income supplement.

No longer need name on smaller trucks

Transportation and Communications Minister John R. Rhodes has announced that owners of small trucks are no longer required to have their names printed on the side of their vehicles.

The amendment to the Regulations of Ontario made under The Highway Traffic Act became effective July 1, 1974.

The amendment exempts all commercial motor vehicles having a gross weight of not more than 18,000 pounds, in addition to motorized mobile homes and trucks fitted with camper units which were exempted under a previous regulation.

The new regulation is the result of increased popularity in the use of small commercial motor vehicles as a means of private transportation.

The supplement to the income of all employees on staff as of July 1 will be paid shortly and the increase is retroactive to January 1.

Mr. Quesnel notes the increase, affecting 160 employees at the hospital, would help alleviate the inflationary problems faced by the staff. The rapid escalation in the cost of living is having a serious impact on the standard of living "in all our staff," he noted.

Similar to all other hospitals, the salaries of registered nurses are still being researched and announcement of the salary levels should be received shortly.

The total cost of the wage increases to employees will be approximately $135,000. The income supplement is in keeping with recent wage settlements for hospital employees in Toronto and other Ontario Centres.

Bill Smiley

Farewell Europe, I'm stuck at home

by Bill Smiley

Well, I thought this column would have a fairly exotic date-line: Amsterdam, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Rue de Something-or-Other in Paris.

That's what I had in mind for the summer. My young brother has an apartment, with lots of sleeping space, in the Black Forest of Germany, or the Schwarzwald, as we jet-setters call it.

He offered it to us as a base for bashing around western Europe. It was ideal. About five hours from Paris, the same from Switzerland, Denmark, Belgium, Berlin. A day to Sweden. A mere bagatelle to Holland.

I had it all worked out. A one-day trip to Zurich, a two-day spree in Paris, a smash at a Munich biergarten (that's a coffin where you have to keep your socks up), with the occasional foray into Frankfurt or Hamburg.

Unfortunately, most of our forays this summer will be into Hamburg. That's all we can afford, and that only once a week.

There's an old nursery rhyme, which doesn't even rhyme, "For want of a nail, the shoe was lost; for want of a shoe, the horse was lost; for want of a horse, the battle was lost; for want of a victory, the kingdom was lost." Or something like that. I'm quoting from memory. I read it in the Book of Knowledge when I was eight. And along with all those nails and shoes, a good bit of my memory has been lost.

At any rate, you get the message. One thing leads to another. Or something.

That's why I'm not writing this column from the Eiffel Tower in Paris or God's Badburg in Germany.

It all started with the Good Samaritans. You may recall that I wrote a column a few weeks ago about some former students who came around and fixed my garage door for nothing. They absolutely refused to accept a cent. It gave me quite a warm glow at the time.

That warm glow has, over the intervening weeks, turned into a blazing ulcer.

Not their fault. It's my wife's. She's been saying for about two years, "Bill, we've got to get the house painted."

I always agree. "Yep. Sweetie, next summer for sure." Now, our house is not something you paint on a holiday weekend, buy a case of beer and getting some of your old buddies to come in and help.

It's a two-and-a-half story edifice of brick. Driving past, you might say, "Hell, I'd paint that for $85.00." There's just the trim that needs painting, you see.

But that is some trim. There are thirteen storm windows, thirteen screens, eleveny-four shutters, two French doors, and at least twenty-seven blackbirds in a fir tree. That's before you start painting the trim.

Well, in a burst of sentimentality, my old lady suggested we give "the boys" the job of painting the trim. I would have given them a case of beer and felt I was all even.

The "trim" is costing me $500. Fair enough, in these days. I could have done it myself, but I'm not going to climb a fifty-foot ladder unless there's a mighty fair damsel at the top. And all they found was a hornet's nest.

Next. The boss, who still calls me "Mr. Smiley" or "Sir", bless him, said, "Sir, you've got troubles, with that roof." My heart sank. I've been through it before.

Well, I don't have to go into detail. Any home-owner knows the rest. The roof is shot, everything is rotten, though it hasn't leaked a drop since we came here. The only thing leaking is the downstairs toilet, just after we've spent $16 having it "fixed".

Farewell, Amsterdam. Farewell, Copenhagen. Hello, roof. Hello, bank manager.

I shouldn't complain, I guess. Suppose those boys hadn't come to fix my garage door. I might have been lolling around in Copenhagen, saying, "Pas de nuit, che, e," instead of answering the door ten times a day to loan the construction gang a screwdriver.

It's going to be a $2,000 summer holiday. At home. It turns out that the garage has to be painted, too, and the back porch. Rather bitterly, I asked one of the "boys" if they shouldn't paint the woodpile, as well, to go with the decor. And with a nice twist of wit, he said, "Would you like us to paint the cat, as well?" He sleeps there. Why not? Green. Shutter green. With a high gloss.

Featuring Coyne, Hazzards, Eldorado, Bannockburn, Kaladar, Cooper, Queensboro, and area.

Here and there around Hazzards

Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Burnside (Ted) and family were home for the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Burnside, before going on to the Gaspe.

Harold and Pauline Harris, Heather, Dean and Paula attended the McMurray Reunion at Gunter Lake on Sunday, 28th, with fine weather.

Mr. Hubert Harris and son Peter were home recently with Mr. and Mrs. Philo Harris. Peter remained a few days with his grandparents and Uncle Harold's. Then Dale went with cousin, Peter, when he returned home to Sault St. Marie, flying from Toronto, and will fly back on the 31st. when Hubert again comes to Toronto on a business trip.

Mrs. A. R. Bain of Toronto spent several days with Alma, Minnie and Roy Moorcroft and called on Stanley and Keitha Moorcroft and other members of the family. A good deal of reminiscing took place, re: Kincaid family history.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coghill, Allan and Dawn, of Oshawa, with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Holmes, Kimberly, and Andrea spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ketcheson. Beverly, her friend, Mrs. Coghill and children are staying a few days longer "keeping an eye on the garden."

The evening of the second Sunday of August will be a kind of 117th-iversary at Hazzards old church, when the Bible Society Service is to be held with the Rev. T. Rex. Norman, of Peterborough, speaking. Watch for the regular notice next week. All denominations are welcome—the Bible Society and its work involves us all.

On Wednesday, Monte Moorcroft, daughter Sylvia and nephew Dale Moorcroft of Belleville called at "Valley Croft" and at Ross' to see his new milking parlour.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Pitt enjoyed with their son Wallace a three-hour boat tour from Gananoque among the Thousand Islands on Sunday.

Investigate mishap

The Madoc detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police is investigating a two car accident that occurred near the County Road 23 by-pass of Highway 7, Monday afternoon.

Drivers of the two vehicles were Annie Tressick, 51, of Marmora and James Turcotte, 45, of Almonte, Ont.

Damage was estimated at $300 to the Tressick car and $150 to the second vehicle.

Cooper highlights

Master Stanley Parks had the misfortune of breaking his arm last Wednesday when he fell from climbing a tree.

Mrs. C. B. McCoy had a pleasant time at an afternoon tea at the home of Miss Grace Raney, Madoc, on Thursday this past week.

Mr. Ralph Bailey and Mr. Brian Rollins returned home after spending some time out west.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Holmes spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Askey, Oshawa.

Mrs. Frank Parks returned from Belleville General Hospital on Sunday after spending a week there.

A number from Cooper attended the Rollins Reunion on Saturday held at Tweed Memorial Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Courneyea and family are spending a few days at Algonquin Park this week.

Bannockburn banter

Rev. Wilson, wife and family, of London, Ont. accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. McQueen and family of Washington, D.C. called on Mrs. Donly last week.

Mrs. Fred Blondin, Peterboro, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodley and family, Brantford, were guests of Mrs. Eva Davidson on Saturday.

Miss Kathleen Sandford, Oshawa, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Sandford recently.

Mrs. Donly, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Margaret Priest spent Saturday in Belleville.

The thirteenth annual Wannamaker Reunion was held at Tweed Park on July 21 under beautiful, sunny skies. The nice weather brought out about 75 of the clan, coming from Belleville, Picton, Bancroft, Stirling, Madoc, Campbellford, Trenton, Hillier, Wellington, Hastings and L'Amable.

About 12 o'clock noon, everyone enjoyed a pot-luck picnic dinner.

Later in the afternoon the president, Mr. Loral Wannamaker, called the meeting to order for a short business period and prizes were given to the youngest baby girl who was Tammy Cairns of Wellington, 10 months old; youngest baby boy, Garry Wannamaker, of Hastings, who was 8 months old. The couple having the largest family present were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wannamaker with 6 boys present. Mr. Guy Sutherland of L'Amable won the prize for the oldest person reading without glasses. The family coming the farthest were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bruce of McArthur's Mills. The oldest teenager not married was Miss Joyce Wannamaker, Bancroft. Mrs. Keitha Aide of Stirling had the birthday nearest the reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bedell were the oldest married couple—54 years married. The youngest married couple was Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Vandusen of Picton, married one month. Mr. Frank Bedell of Belleville was the oldest man present and Mrs. Eliza Jane Wannamaker of Corbyville was the oldest lady present.

Mr. Loral Wannamaker remained President for another year. Mr. Elmer Wannamaker of Bancroft is Vice-President. The treasurer will be Mrs. Walter Wannamaker, R.R. #2 Madoc, and the Secretary will be Mrs. Emil Wannamaker, R.R. #1 Madoc.

The reunion will be held the same place next year on the third Sunday in July. Hope to see you all then.

The rest of the afternoon was spent enjoying the lovely music and visiting with relations who don't see each other very often.

For 18 years, they've been covering a lot of ground together.

Back in 1955, Al Parker of Barrie, Ontario bought a Lawn-Boy power mower, model BF20K. He didn't know it then, of course, but it would go on working faithfully for more than 18 years. That's what you get when you buy a Lawn-Boy—years of trouble-free use!

Compare our lowest-priced Lawn-Boy power mower with other so-called "bargain" mowers. Lawn-Boy is built to last. Like the gas tank, its lightweight magnesium alloy housing is completely rustproof. There's no risk of engine burn-out either, because Lawn-Boy's famous 2-cycle engine uses pre-mixed oil and gas. The largest muffler in the industry makes it quiet. A reinforced blade and staggered wheels make for a smooth level cut. Some models even offer Solid State CO ignition, which means faster starts, no ignition points to wear out and up to 4 times longer plug life.

As the years roll by, your Lawn-Boy will keep rolling with them. Choose from the budget priced 19" model 5023, the 19" or 21" push or self-propelled Deluxe or Solid State models. 2 commercial models, arbor or a cordless electric. In all there are 15 different great Lawn-Boys. See your dealer now while his selection is still complete.

Remember, a Lawn-Boy may cost you a little bit more but it lasts a lot longer, to boot. So in the long run it's well worth the investment, right Mr. Parker?

Mine employees

The reinstatement of the dropout schedule follows a recent announcement that the mine would continue to operate until late 1979 or 1980.

It is well known that some employees don't care for the dropout schedule, particularly the midnight shift, because it breaks up the week just when the employees are adjusting to working nights.

Some employees feel the staggering of men and equipment does not increase production, and is unnecessary.

Many of the local issues in the recent contract negotiations between union and management have not been settled yet.

Soon 100-years-old

Mrs. Alice Slush, of Tweed, is about to celebrate the momentous birthday of her life.

She will soon be 100 years old. To mark the event a celebration is being planned by her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Bateman, with "Open House" for her friends, neighbours and relatives on Tuesday, Aug. 6, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at 7 Victoria St. South, Tweed.

On her actual birthday, Aug 10, she will be the guest of honor at a dinner party with her immediate family.

3-car accident

A three car accident on Highway 62, near the hamlet of Ivanhoe has left an estimated $2,700 damage to the vehicles involved.

Drivers of the cars were Lawrence Charlton, 231 River St., Tweed; Edward Fleming, RR 5, Madoc; Cecil Reid, RR 2, Stirling.

Police report that Reid has been pulling out his driveway when struck by a car driven by Mr. Charlton. The second vehicle then struck a half ton truck driven by Mr. Fleming.

No injuries were reported in the accident.

Expensive turn

An attempted left turn has resulted in a combined total of $100 damage to two vehicles involved in an accident in Warkworth Friday evening.

Drivers of the vehicles were Orno J. Sharp, RR 3, Stirling and Ole G. Jensen, RR 2, Warkworth.

Recently visiting Roy McAdam of Eldorado was son, Wilbur and family from Thompson, Manitoba.

Brownson and Savage in Anglican vows

St. John the Baptist Anglican Church, Madoc, was the scene of a lovely wedding on June 29, 1974 when Rev. J. H. Thompson and Rev. Peter Newbery, uncle of the bride, united in marriage, Elizabeth Joan Brownson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brownson, R.R. #4, Madoc, and James Keith Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Savage, Cite des Deux Montagnes, Quebec. For the double ring ceremony, the church was decorated with white satin pew bows with pink flowers, baskets of pink and white gladiolus, carnations and mums and altar bouquets of white mums and orange blossoms.

Traditional wedding music was provided by Miss Lamoine West. The soloist was Mr. Larry Stickwood, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Al di La". During the ceremony the congregation joined in singing the hymn, "All people that on earth do dwell".

Given in marriage by her father and mother, the bride was lovely in a floor-length princess-line gown of white crepe highlighted by tiny pearl buttons on the bodice and on the long slim-fitting sleeves. A cathedral length train flowed from the back of the dress and a long illusion veil, appliqued and bordered with lace, fell softly from a cluster of white flowers on her head. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, white carnations and Stephanotis, intertwined with ivy and baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Gail Murray and first bridesmaid was Miss Joyce Brownson, both sisters of the bride. Also attending the bride were Mrs. Sheryl Teed and Miss Beth Webster, university classmates. The flower girl was Miss Tracey Savage, niece of the groom. All attendants wore identical floor length dresses of flowered polyester sheer underlined with pink. They were accented by a deep hem-line flounce and sheer frills at the shoulder and sleeves. They carried white baskets, filled with pink and white mums and decorated with pink streamers. They wore pink flowers in their hair.

Best man was Mr. Norman Savage, brother of the groom. Ushers were Mr. Don Savage and Mr. Peter Savage, brothers of the groom and Mr. George Attridge, close friend of the groom. Ring-bearer was Master Scott Savage, nephew of the groom. They wore brown tuxedos, accented with velvet lapels, frilled shirts and brown velvet bow ties.

Receiving the guests at the reception in the Madoc Kiwanis Centre, the bride's mother was lovely in a floor length gown of rose polyester raised crepe with overskirt and full cathedral sleeves of matching georgette. She wore silver accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Assisting was the groom's mother, lovely in a floor length dress of rainbow-hued polyester sheer. She wore white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, silver candelabra, pink candles and floral arrangements. A delicious turkey dinner was enjoyed by all. Following the reception, the bride and groom began the dance with the first waltz and then everyone joined in.

For the wedding trip to Martinique, the bride wore a blue and white knit wrap dress, complimented by white accessories and a corsage of pink and white roses. For their departure, the guests formed a friendship circle and the bride and groom expressed their thanks and bid farewells to each one.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage will reside at 50 Stephanie Street in Toronto.

Davies and Sexsmith

On Saturday, June 22 at the Sacred Heart of Mary, in Madoc, Janet Marie Davies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Davies was married to Harold James Sexsmith, son of Mr. Edward Sexsmith of RR 3, Tweed and the late Mrs. Sexsmith.

Officiating clergyman was Father Murphy with wedding music by Mr. John Murphy and solo by Miss Joan Donaldson.

The bride wore a floor length white satin gown with long sleeves of brocaded lace over net with matching bodice to a V neckline. A layered veil fitted by comb to the crown flowed over the floor length train trimmed with matching brocaded lace. The bride carried a cascade of red roses with small white flowers accented with green ivy.

The Matron of Honor, Mrs. Don McRae of Madoc wore a long pink gown with short sleeves and square neckline both with lace trimming. She carried a bouquet of white daisies with pink carnations and pink streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patsy Davies from London, Ont., cousin of the bride and Miss Karen Anne Cassibo of Bancroft, also a cousin of the bride.

Both wore long yellow gowns identical to the Matron of Honor. They carried bouquets of yellow daisies with white carnations and yellow streamers. All three girls wore matching white gloves and white shoes.

The best man was Leonard Lajoie of RR 3, Tweed. Ushers were Joseph Goulah, nephew of the groom and Ronald Davies, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a floor length blue dress of polyester doubleknit with matching jacket accented by a corsage of red roses and white accessories.

The wedding cake was three-tiered and decorated with pink roses down the corners trimmed with green. On the sides of the cake, two small yellow rose buds centred with a pink rosebud. Between the pillared layers were bells centred with a pink rose and green leaves. The cake was surrounded by a wreath of green with white carnations, balanced on each side a wreathed chimney with white candles inserted.

The reception was held at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall in Madoc.

For a trip to Cape Breton Island, the bride wore a one piece dress white with blue accented by a corsage of red rosebuds and a matching red belt with white purse and matching shoes.

The couple will reside at 285 St. Lawrence St. East, Madoc.

Out of town guests were present from Bancroft, Bolton, Toronto, Smith Falls, London, Belleville, Tweed, Kingston, Windsor, Peterborough, and Quebec.

Susan Ross, Gary Bonter wed in St. John the Baptist

During a ceremony July 13 at St. John the Baptist Anglican Church, Susan Irene Ross married Gary V. Bonter.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Ross and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bonter Sr.

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. J. Thompson, with duets performed by Jona Donaldson and Dorothy Peters.

The bride wore a long sleeved white lace trimmed with pink and green flowers on the bodice and neckline. Tiers of lace trimmed the bottom and sleeves. Cathedral veil held by white satin ribbon trimmed with white daisies to match the bouquet.

The maid of honor, Mary Hardy of Marmora, wore a mint green nylon polyester gown with a shirred bodice and shirring on the cuffs of the sleeves. Yellow daisy bouquet and matching yellow ribbon in her hair trimmed with yellow daisies.

The best man was Tom Robinson of Fenlon Falls; Robert Bonter, the brother of the groom was an usher.

The bride's mother wore blue nylon over taffeta with lace bolero, with a pink daisy corsage.

The groom's mother wore a rose colored gown with a white daisy corsage.

The wedding cake was three-tiered trimmed in pink and green, with pink and green candles in silver candleabras.

The reception was held at Sacred Heart of Mary Parish Hall, where guests were received.

For going away, the bride wore a pant suit with an arnel jersey.

Out of town guests were from Peterborough, Stratford, Waterloo, Belleville, Fenlon Falls and Marmora.

Purina-Ettes meet Lakefield

Saturday night, in Madoc, a large crowd of baseball fans saw their home team lose a 9-1 game to the Belleville Yardmen. The Yardmen picked up four runs in the eighth inning and five runs in the ninth.

Hits for the Purina-Ettes—6; while the Yardmen had 8 hits.

Sandra Fleming went the nine innings for the Purina-Ettes with four walks and four strike-outs.

The Purina-Ettes travelled to Belleville on Sunday to blank the Yardmen 2-0 in the second game; Sue Wright hitting a single to knock in Sharon Lessard in the fifth inning. The second run was scored in the seventh inning by a well-hit home-run by Sue Wright.

A one-run loss

Thursday night in Madoc, the Purina-Ettes lost again by one run on their home diamond to the Yardmen.

The Purina-Ettes took a 3 run lead in the first inning with Margie Bateman, Sue Wright, Joan Bailey and Jane Bailey each hitting singles, while Brenda Hay pounded out a double.

In the second inning the Yardmen took over and scored 6 runs. Judy Pultz and Judy Woodley hitting singles, Joyce MacFarlane, Sheila Smith and Penny Hughes each came through with a triple. The Yardmen also had 3 walks in the same inning.

The third inning was scoreless.

The Purina-Ettes again gained confidence in the fourth to score two runs—Rosanne Chapman with a single and Sharon Lessard pounded out a triple.

In the top of the fifth inning, the Purina-Ettes scored two more runs to tie up the score. Margie Bateman hit a double while Jane Bailey had a single.

Sheila Smith for the Yardmen came through with a single in the bottom of the fifth and Shirley Guliver hit her in to score with a single.

The score ended 7-6 for the Yardmen as the sixth and seventh innings were scoreless.

Purina-Ettes had 11 hits.

Yardmen had 8 hits.

Sandra Fleming gave up 3 walks while Sue Morton had 5 strike-outs and no walks.

The Yardmen defeated the Purina-Ettes 7-5.

The Purina-Ettes scoring one run in the first inning and the Yardmen tied it up in the second.

The fourth inning put the Purina-Ettes ahead by scoring three runs, while the Yardmen tallied for one.

The score ended 7-5 for the Yardmen.

Sandra Fleming again pitched a hard nine innings just giving up two walks.

Sandra Clause was put back on the mound for the Yardmen with one walk and one strike-out.

This series permits the Yardmen to stay in Intermediate A and play off with Newmarket and the Purina-Ettes will enter the Intermediate B series against Lakefield.

The game times will be announced over the radio.

DEATHS

LEAH GRASS DOWNEY

At Belleville General Hospital on Wednesday, July 24, 1974, Leah Grass Downey of Crookston passed away. She was in her 69th year. Beloved wife of the late Percy Downey, she is survived by a son, R. Three thefts have been investigated by this Detachment. A total of $317.00 was stolen. One break, enter and theft was reported and $250.00 was stolen.

Five reports of Willful Damage have been received.

On July 20th, 1974, a male from the Marmora area was reported missing and to date has not been located.

On July 22nd, 1974, a girl was reported missing from the Rawdon Twp. area but was located the next day.

One Trenton area man has been charged with Impaired Driving.

Four male subjects have been charged for Having Liquor under the Liquor Control Act of Ontario.

Approx. 41 other general occurrences have been investigated by this office, some of which included: compassionate to locate, lost markers, found wallet, threat of assault, traffic control, and speeders.

Names no longer required, sides of small trucks

AMENDMENT TO THE HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ACT

Transportation and Communications Minister John R. Rhodes has announced that owners of small trucks are no longer required to have their names printed on the side of their vehicles.

The amendment to the Regulations of Ontario made under The Highway Traffic Act became effective July 2, 1974. The amendment exempts all commercial motor vehicles having a gross weight of not more than 18,000 pounds, in addition to motorized mobile homes and trucks fitted with camper units which were exempted under a previous regulation.

The new regulation is the result of increased popularity in the use of small commercial motor vehicles as a means of private transportation.

In days of yore...

50 years ago

The Madoc Agricultural Association held their second annual celebration on the Fair grounds on Wednesday of last week. Although it threatened rain in the forenoon a fair crowd attended the excellent attractions on the grounds. The football game between Cooper and Harts was very close and exciting with Cooper, having slightly the better team, winning by a score of 1-0. The horse races were watched by most of the crowd and from the cheers from that part of the grounds must have been very exciting. The baseball game between Deloro and Tweed was a one-sided affair with Deloro winning easily by a score of 15-6. The Arlie Marks Company put on a play in the Masonic Hall, in the evening which was enjoyed by all present. After the concert, a dance was held in the Armouries, which was attended by a large crowd. The music was furnished by the Mirimba-5 orchestra, which as usual was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. George Richards, of Youngstown, Ohio, is leading the Kiwanis Fish Contest for the largest pickerel caught in the Moira Lake. On Tuesday morning, Mr. Richards while fishing with a fly rod hooked and landed a beauty, which weighed 7 pounds, 9 ounces. Mr. Percy Phillips, a former Madocer, now residing in Port Hope, had a field day last week, when he landed four muskies. The largest weighed 20 pounds, 7 ounces, and is the biggest entered in the contest to date.

"The responsibility is great and the journey long," says Herb McKnight, of Cooper, who set himself a difficult but worthwhile task, when he founded his wildlife conservation estate in the Cooper area several years ago. With the idea of rehabilitating 4,000 acres of wasteland into a wildlife sanctuary, Mr. McKnight says that he has found the job a difficult one and that his health has begun to give out. He has advertised his property for sale—the estate which he so often advertised as "for fins, furs, feathers and folks."

The 50-mile stretch of Highway 62 from Madoc to Bancroft will be completely graded and paved by the fall of 1951 it is expected by the Department of Highways. This was reported by Roscoe Robson, M.P. for Hastings East, who said the department hoped to complete grading and construction of culverts this year, while the sections remaining unpaved would be mulched next year. The local representative stated that the contract for the grading of the three and one half mile stretch from Kellar's Bridge north of Eldorado to Bannockburn has been recently let and the contractor would commence work in the near future. Contract price was not stated but Mr. Robson said the grading and culvert work had been estimated at $85,000. per mile.

Two former residents of Madoc Village, who left here over 60 years ago, returned last week to visit their place of birth. They are the daughters of the late Joseph White, Mrs. Geo. Beck (Fanny White), now residing in Victoria, B.C. and Mrs. Wm. Daniel (Lillie White), now living in Toronto. Senator Geo. S. White is a cousin, whom they visited while here.

Messrs. George Fox and Murney Mason, campers at Moira Lake, had a successful weekend fishing, when they landed three muskies. The combined weight of the three fish was 55 pounds. The largest was 22 pounds, the second 19 pounds, and the third 14 pounds.

Michael Lootsma, 15-year-old Bowmanville boy, missing in the Buckshot Lake area, 30 miles north of Kaladar since Monday afternoon, was found unharmed in the bush Tuesday morning by a search party. The lad was found about five miles west of Buckshot Lake after being in the bush all night. Police at Kaladar said that the Lootsma boy with Bill White, 15, also of Bowmanville, had gone into the bush on a hike Monday and somehow had become separated. The White boy made his way back to camp and raised the alarm. Police raised a 40-man search party which hunted the bush in the area until dark Monday night without result and searchers were again in the bush early Tuesday. The boy was located about nine o'clock. The Lootsma boy had been cottaging with the White family at Buckshot Lake.

IN MEMORIAM

FITZGERALD — In loving memory of my husband, Percy, who passed away July 29th, 1970.

Beautiful memories are all we have left,
Of the one we loved dearly and will never forget;

His loving smile and happy face,
A broken link we can never replace.
Sad was the parting, no one can tell,
So sudden on earth the sorrow fell;
Memories we treasure, no one can steal,
Death leaving a heartache nothing can heal.

Little we knew when we woke than morn,
What sorrow the day would bring;
For the call was sudden, the shock severe,
To part with the one we loved so dear.
Always remembered and sadly missed
By wife, children and grandchildren.

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

When digging a hole in your garden to plant trees or shrubbery, first lay a plastic drop cloth near the intended site. Pile the excavated dirt on top of the cloth next to the hole and clean-up afterwards is that much easier. Just pick up the cloth and away goes the dirt. It also keeps the lawn looking much neater.

To avoid messy spills when filling steam and spray irons, keep a plastic juice glass, one of the pliable kind, on hand. The cup holds just the right amount of water and the sides can be squeezed together to form a funnel — no more wiping up.

When washing fine or delicate China crockery, first lay a heavy terry cloth bath towel across the bottom of the sink. This prevents damaging chips and cracks. Also remember to avoid drastic changes in water temperature when washing China.

When keeping children occupied at birthday parties or kids' gatherings, cover a table with a paper table cloth and invite each child to decorate his or her own place at the table. This keeps them happy and busy while you prepare to serve the goodies. Prizes can be awarded to the best decorated places.

When a lightbulb breaks inside a lamp fixture and you can't remove it, first pull the lamp cord to prevent electric shocks then take a spring-type clothes pin and attach to the filament of the bulb. The bulb should easily unscrew.

In the Kitchen

SPICY CALIFORNIA PLUM CAUCE

- 1 pound fresh California plums
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1/4 teaspoon cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon allspice
- 1 1/2 cups water

Cut plums in half; remove pits and slice. Combine sugar, cornstarch and spices. Gradually stir in water. Cook over medium heat until mixture begins to thicken. Add sliced plums, cover and simmer 10 minutes.

Fix-It Tip

A garage takes a great deal of punishment. If it's a free-standing frame garage it is less able to take the wear and tear than your house. You can help it last for years, however, with regular inspection and routine maintenance.

Start by cleaning out the garage. You intended to anyway, remember. With the clutter and dirt out of the way, start checking from the floor up.

Use a pocket knife or screw driver to probe the bottom boards all around. Replace any siding that is warped or rotted. If rotting is a problem, look for signs of poor drainage.

"Rust" Spots on Lettuce ...

Russet spotting on lettuce leaves has many people wondering. Rust spots are likely to appear on overmature lettuce. The most frequent cause of rust is related to the weather in the lettuce growing area. A spell of wet weather followed by a heat spell usually affects the lettuce crops in this way. Rust spots are not harmful in any way, however, since they have no eye appeal you may prefer to discard the spotted leaves. At home, store lettuce away from apples, pears and tomatoes which produce ethylene gas - a natural gas which stimulates ripening and maturing. Mrs. Green is available to talk "shopping" to groups.
